

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
1	Company A	Company A is a private equity firm specializing in middle market, mature, turnarounds, restructuring, strategic re-positioning, and mezzanine financings. It invests in plastics processing industry, injection molding packaging, industrial, and automotive sectors. The firm prefers to invest companies based in XX, XX, and XX. It typically invests in companies with a maximum enterprise value of €XX ($XXX) and maximum sales value of €XXX ($XXX). The firm is focused on acquiring controlling stakes in small to medium size businesses. The firm makes investments through its personal capital and balance sheet. Company A was founded in YYYY and is based in Munich, Germany.	Company XYZ. (Current Investment)
2	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in investments in small, mid sized, and middle market companies. The fund seeks to invest in privately-held, often family owned businesses and non core divisions of larger companies. It primarily invests in companies operating in the packaging, specialty industrial, pharmaceutical-related, specialty financial services, niche manufacturing, medical products and services, consumer goods and services, and insurance and financial services sectors. The firm seeks to invest in companies with enterprise values between $XX and $XX and EBITDA upto $XX. It prefers to make control oriented investments and holds an investments for a period of four to six years. The firm prefers to exit its investments through a sale to strategic buyer, sale to management or to a financial buyer or an initial public offering. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Prior Investment)
3	Company C	Company C is a private equity firm specializing in buyouts of middle market, later stage, and mature companies. It does not make investments in early stage commitments. The firm seeks to invest in healthcare, business services, consumer, industrials, software, and information technology sectors. It primarily invests in companies based in North America focusing on Canada and United States and Europe, with a particular emphasis on the United Kingdom. The firm invests between $XX and $XX in companies with enterprise value between $XX and $XX. The firm prefers to acquire a board seat in its portfolio companies. It may either lead or co-lead the investment. The firm prefers to make control buyouts but also considers joint control with partners. Company C was formerly known as OMERS Capital Partners. Company C was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX with additional offices in XXX. It operates as a subsidiary of XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
4	Company D	Company D is a private equity firm specializing in acquisitions and platform acquisitions. The firm makes investments in buyouts, large- middle market, large-cap, mid-cap, and small-cap market and distressed companies. It also invests in recapitalization, growth capital, corporate carve-outs of subsidiaries and mission-critical supply divisions from multinational corporations, operational restructurings of undervalued businesses, and builds up. The firm seeks to invest in technology, electronics manufacturing services, industrial, aerospace, healthcare, retail, industrials products, customer care services, metal services, building products, entertainment, gaming, cabinetry products, commercial vehicles, commercial and investment banking, financial services, commercial and multi-unit residential real estate. It invests in the XX region including XX. The firm seeks to invest between $XX and $XX in companies that have minimum revenues of $XX. It does not consider size if the company is in an industry in which the firm already has presence. The firm seeks to make direct as well as co-investments through managed private equity, real estate and credit funds. It seeks to acquire a control position in its portfolio companies. Company D was founded in YYYY and is based in XX with additional offices in XX.	Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
5	Company E	Company E is a private equity firm specializing in investments in late stage growth capital, expansion capital, middle market, special situations, leveraged buyouts, acquisitions, management buyouts, management recapitalizations, privatization, family business, industry consolidation, take private investments, turnarounds, corporate carveouts, and in companies experiencing stress from financial or operating issues. The firm seeks to invest in private and public companies in consumer products, energy, retailing and related services, business services, manufacturing, transportation, industrials, and communication sectors. The firm typically invests in companies headquartered in XXX with a focus on the United States and XX. It seeks to invest between $XX and $XX in companies with enterprise and acquisition value between $XX and $XX, revenues of $XX or greater, and EBITDA of $XX or more. The firm can make both majority and minority investments in its portfolio companies. It prefers to exit from its investments between three years and five years. Company E was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ. (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment)
6	Company F	Company F is a self managed investment trust. The firm invests in the public equity markets of the XX, XX, and XX. It primarily invests in financial funds, leisure and media funds, property funds, industrial and service managed general funds, and technology sectors. It also manages unquoted pools. Company F was founded in YYYY and is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
7	Company G	Company G is a private equity firm specializing in mid-market buyouts. It seeks to invest in management buyouts and buyins; institutional and secondary buyouts; and funding for acquisitions. The firm invests in further consolidation of its portfolio companies. It prefers to invest in industry sectors with a focus on construction and building materials, consumer products and services, financial services, healthcare, leisure and hotels, specialist manufacturing, oil and gas, TMT, and support services. The firm typically invests in small and mid-sized companies based in the XX. It invests between EX XX ($XX) and EXX ($XX) in transactions with size between EXX ($XX) and EXX ($XX) in companies with enterprise value of between EXX ($XX) and EXX ($XX). The firm seeks to hold a board seat in its portfolio companies. Company G was founded in YYYY and is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
8	Company H	Company H is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in mezzanine financing, subordinate debt and equity capital, and other junior capital for lower middle market companies. It focuses on leverage and management buyouts; acquisition financing; recapitalizations and refinancings; growth capital financings; going private transactions; liquidity for existing shareholders including generational transfers generational transfers; and structured finance. The firm does not invest in start-up companies or in real estate sector. It invests across diversified sectors. It seeks to invest in XX companies. The firm usually invests between $XX to $XX per transaction. It provides between $XX to $XX of mezzanine financing per transaction and between $XX and $XX as junior capital financing. The firm targets companies with revenues between $XX and $XX; EBITDA in excess of $XX; and enterprise value between $XX and $XX. Around XX percent of the investment can be in the form of common equity. It typically invests in the form of subordinate debt with warrants; convertible subordinate debt or preferred stock; PIK preferred stock; and non-control common equity (with mezzanine investments). Company H was founded in July YYYY and is headquartered in XXX with additional offices in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
9	Company I	Company I is a private equity firm specializing in add-on acquisitions in mid size middle-market companies. The firm invests in private and publicly owned and subsidiaries and divisions of large corporations. The firm does not invest in distressed or turnaround opportunities but seeks investments in under managed companies. It does not limit its investments to any specific industry focus, but focuses on industrial and consumer goods, plastics and packaging, branded foods and beverage, food processing, business services, general manufacturing, and value-added distribution industries. The firm also targets investments in service industries, particularly those with a business-to-business focus. It seeks to invest in companies based in the XX. The firm typically invests in companies with enterprise values between $XX and $XX and transaction values between $XX and $XX. However, it may also participate in larger or smaller transactions. It prefers to acquire a board seat or controlling positions through its funds in its portfolio companies. Company I was formed in YYYY and is XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
10	Company J	Company J is a private equity firm specializing in mezzanine investments in lower middle market companies. It seeks to invest in management buyouts, later stage, mergers or strategic acquisitions, generational transfer of business ownership, redemption of minority shareholder interests, recapitalization, internal growth, industry consolidation, share repurchases, growth into new products and markets, and refinancing existing debt. It does not invest in real estate, commodities, significant technology risk, startups, early stage businesses, project finance, and turnarounds. The firm prefers to invest in chemicals, construction materials, containers and packaging, aerospace and defense, building products, construction and engineering, electrical equipment, industrial conglomerates, machinery, distributors, commercial and professional services, transportation, automobiles and components, consumer durables and apparel, consumer services, food beverage and tobacco, household and personal products sector, manufacturing, business outsourcing, business services, value added distribution, service companies, agribusiness, retail, and other mature businesses. It primarily invests in companies in the Central U.S. from the Great Lakes to the Rockies and from XX. The firm also invests outside this region with a focus on XX. It seeks to make an equity investment between $XX and $XX and debt investment between $XX and $XX in firms with an enterprise value between $XX and $XX, sales value between $XX and $XX, and EBITDA between $X and $XX. The firm invests either mezzanine capital or with combination of mezzanine and equity capital in its portfolio companies. It seeks to take minority positions in its portfolio companies, but where appropriate also seeks majority ownership. Company J was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
11	Company K	Company K is a principal investment firm specializing in direct and fund of funds investments. For direct investments, the firm specializes in venture capital and private equity investments in startups, post startups, early venture, growth capital, successions, capital restructuring, management buyouts and buy-ins in middle market, turnaround, mid venture, late venture, recapitalizations, and emerging markets and regional investments. The firm is interested in businesses engaged in all sectors, in XX with a special focus on France including XXX. For middle market, growth capital, and leverage buyouts; it typically invests between €X XX ($XX ) and XX ($XX) and more in case of syndicate investments in companies with over €XX ($XX) in sales. The firm prefers to invest in companies in the information technologies and life sciences sectors based in France and Northern Europe. For regional investments, it makes investments of less than €XX (XX) in small and medium-sized growth companies that create value, with sales under €XX ($XX), in all business sectors in the Rhône-Alpes, Auvergne, Burgundy, and Franche-Comté regions. It also seeks to invest in companies having revenues between €XX ($XX) in underdeveloped companies and in succession of companies with valuation near €XX ($XX). The firm primarily invests between €XX (XX) to €XX ($XX) in its portfolio companies. The firm seeks to invest in companies with enterprise values between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). The firm aims to exit from its investments over a three to seven year time horizon. Directly or through its sponsored private equity funds, it provides unlisted growing companies with a full array of private equity services. The firm takes either minority or majority stakes. Company K was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
12	Company L	Company L, formerly FSI Régions SAS, is a venture capital and private equity firm specializing in start-up, early venture, emerging growth, growth capital, buyouts, buy-ins, and mezzanine investments in small and medium-sized businesses. It generally invests in all the sectors with a focus on food industry, hotel industry, catering, healthcare, information technology, industry, services, construction, tourism and leisure. The firm focuses on investments in France. It usually makes investments between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies with total revenues between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). The firm generally takes a minority stake in the companies it acquires. It prefers to invest in firms that have already been established for at least three years. Company L was founded in YYYY and is headquartered in Paris, France with additional offices in Paris, Lyon, Nantes, Lille, Basse-Normandie, France, Dijon, Villers-lès-Nancy, Balma, Bordeaux, Marseille, Orléans, Rennes, Rouen, Schiltigheim, and Montpellier, France. FSI Régions SAS is a joint venture between Company B and Oséo Financement.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
13	Company M	Company M is a private equity firm specializing in buyout, and growth capital investments. It also seeks to invest in mature, middle market companies, and turnarounds. The firm prefers to invest in underperforming and under-managed companies. It seeks to invest in industrial manufacturing and service companies. The firm has no geographic limitations. It prefers to invest between $XX and $XXX in companies which have revenues between $XX and $XX. The firm seeks investment in companies with revenues under $XX if they can be grown or represent an add-on opportunity to an existing portfolio company. The firm seeks to focus on organic growth. It prefers to invest for fixed holding periods. Company M was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
14	Company M	Company M is a private equity and venture capital arm of Commerce Bancshares Inc. It specializes in investments in family-owned businesses, late ventures, management buyouts, leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations, corporate divestitures, growth financings, expansions, going-private transactions, and third-party/fundless sponsored transactions. The firm seeks to invest in middle market and mature companies. It does not sponsor start-ups, turnarounds, unproven technologies, new technologies, biotechnology, real estate, energy, and financial institutions. The firm primarily invests in aftermarket products and services, agricultural equipment, baby-boomer products and services, building products, business services, commercial aerospace, consumer durables, consumer packaged goods, contract manufacturing services, direct marketing, distribution, education and training products, energy – green technologies, food and beverage, food service equipment, health and safety products, health care services and outsourcing, industrial products, infrastructure products, leisure and recreation, logistics, media and communications, medical devices and diagnostic, outdoor and garden living, personal services, pet products and services, plastics, publishing and printing, specialty chemicals, and test and measurement. It typically invests in XXX to Houston but also considers investments anywhere in the XX. The firm seeks to invest between $XXX and $XX in companies with revenues between $XX and $XXX and greater than $XX for platform companies and EBITDA between $XX and $XX. It invests in companies with enterprise values between $XX and $XX and co-invests in deals with enterprise values greater than $XX. The firm seeks to make add-on business acquisitions and follow-on investments. It invests in any form of junior capital including subordinated debentures, preferred stock, common stock, and warrants. The firm seeks to be a board member in its portfolio companies. It seeks to partner with other private equity firm. The firm seeks to exit its investments between five and seven years through sale to management, strategic, or financial buyer and initial public offering.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
15	Company N	Company N was founded in 2002 and is headquartered in XX with offices in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
16	Company O	Company O is a private equity and venture capital arm of Banque Federative du Credit Mutuel. The firm specializes in seed/startup and buyout investments. It makes balance sheet investments. Company O was founded in February YYYY and is based in XX with an additional office in XX with additional offices in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
17	Company P	Consolidation et Developpement Gestion SAS is a private equity investment firm specializing in growth capital investments. The firm does not invest in turnaround transactions and seeks only minority stakes. It prefers to invest in private small and medium sized companies based in France and weakened by the financial crisis. The firm prefers to invest between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies with revenues between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). The firm prefers to take a board seat in its portfolio companies and prefers to exit its investments within five to seven years. Consolidation et Developpement Gestion SAS was formed in YYYY and is based in XX. It operates as a subsidiary of Comany XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
18	Company B	Company B is a privately owned investment manager. The firm provides its services to investment companies. It manages separate client focused portfolios. The firm launches and manages equity, fixed income, and balanced mutual funds for its clients. It also launches and manages hedge funds for its clients. The firm invests in public equity, fixed income, and hedging markets across the globe. It employs a combination of fundamental and quantitative analysis with bottom-up securities picking approach to create its portfolio. The firm conducts in-house research to make its investments. It was founded on December XX, YYYY and is based in XXX. Company B operates as a subsidiary of Company XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
19	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital arm of mouvement des caisses Desjardins specializing in startups, venture debt, mezzanine, early venture, mid venture, late venture, middle market, mature and later stage. The firm does not invest retail, company turnaround, and venture capital investment firms. The firm seeks to invest in healthcare, trading companies and distributors, agricultural services, and life sciences sectors. The firm's life sciences investments includes the firm focuses on the biotechnology and pharmaceutical fields with a particular focus on therapeutic products, medical equipment, and services, at all stages of their development. It also seeks to invest in life sciences companies having a proprietary intellectual property, a multi-product development strategy, assets less than $XX, net worth less than $XX, and having XX percent of its staff based in XX. It seeks to invest in XX with a focus on Saguenay-Lac-Saint-Jean, Charlevoix and Haute Côte-Nord, Côte-Nord, Chaudières-Appalaches, Quebec City, Central Quebec, Eastern Townships, Montreal, Outaouais, Abitibi-Témiscamingue, Nord-du-Québec and Northern Québec, Eastern Montérégie, Richelieu-Yamaska, Mauricie, Laval and Laurentians, Lanaudière, Bas-Saint-Laurent, Gaspésie-Îles-de-la-Madeline, Côte-Nordat, South Shore and North Shore, Greater Montreal, and Center and East of Montréal. The firm seeks to invest between $XX and $XX in form of equity and between $XX and $XX in form of debt. The firm invests in businesses and cooperatives. Within businesses it seeks to invest in development capital. It provides capital for acquisitions and mergers, expansion and modernization, management buyout, business transfer and buyout, innovation, development of cooperatives, increasing working capital. It does not invest in natural resource exploration, and financial services. The firm invests in industrial, manufacturing, service sectors, technology and telecommunication sector. The firm's industrial investments include industrial technology, from manufacturing to nanotechnology, as well as the chemical, electronic, energy-related technology, food, and heavy industry sectors. Within information technology and telecommunications, it seeks to invest in information management	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
20	Company B	Company B specializes in early stage, mid venture, middle market, later stage, mature, buyout, start-up, growth, mezzanine, and expansion stage funding. It typically invests in industrials, trading companies and distributors, manufacturing, telecommunications, information technology, communications equipment, and investment funds sectors. The fund invests in various resource regions of Québec, namely, Abitibi-Témiscamingue, Bas-St-Laurent, Côte-Nord, Gaspésie — Îles-de-la-Madeleine, Mauricie, Nord-du-Québec, and Saguenay — Lac-St-Jea. The fund typically makes equity investments between CAD XX ($XX) and CAD XX ($XX) per transaction. It invests in operating entities, as well as acquires minority interests in companies, cooperatives and partnerships, or a legal person operating an enterprise, the majority of whose employees are resident in XX and with less than $XXX of assets and net equity of not more than $XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
21	Company B	Company B is a principal investment firm specializing in investments in early stage, emerging, and mature companies. It typically invests in technology companies which include communications, software, and services. The firm primarily invests in companies based in United States. It initially invests around $XX to $XX but the total investment size ranges between $XX and $XX distributed over several rounds of financing. The firm prefers a board seat in its portfolio companies and also seeks to acquire minority interests in companies in which it co-invests. Dominion Ventures, Inc was co-founded by Mr. XX in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
22	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in seed capital and early stage equity investments. The firm also invests in management buyouts and buy-ins. It does not invest in companies operating in the property, leisure or retail businesses. The firm prefers to invest in companies operating in the software, communications hardware, medical technology, silicon, and food sectors. The firm typically invests up to €XX ($XX) in companies based in Ireland. The firm prefers to invest in minority stake and also makes co-investments and seeks to exit its investments within four to seven years. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
23	Company B	Company B is a principal investment firm specializing in specialist loan and mezzanine finance. The firm typically finances start up, early or late stage development, management buyout, and buy-ins. It does not invest in land, commodities, futures, wholesale trade or retailing, ship building, former ECSC sectors, motor manufacturer or first tier supplier, agriculture, synthetic fiber production, railway, road haulage, maritime or aviation, banking, insurance, money lending, debt financing, hire purchase financing or other financial activities, leasing, legal and accountancy services, hotels, residential, and nursing homes, and exporting. The firm primarily invests in companies based in the counties of XX, and XX, and Tees Valley. It seeks to invest between EXX ($XX) and EXX ($XX). The firm invests in small and medium sized companies that include companies with turnover not exceeding EXX ($XX), balance sheet total not exceeding EXX ($XX), employees not more than XXX and companies other than small and medium sized companies not holding more than XX percent of voting shares. Company B is based in XX and has an additional office in XX. It operates as a subsidiary of Company XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
24	Company B	Company B is a venture capital and private equity arm of Banque Populaire des Alpes. It specializes in seed/start up, early venture, growth capital, and LBO transactions. It prefers to invest in the following French departments: Hautes Alpes; Alpes de Haute Provence; Ardèche; Drôme; Isère; Savoie and Haute Savoie. It makes investments in all sectors except real estate. It seeks to invest between EXX ($XX) and EXX ($XX) and take a minority stake in its portfolio companies. Company B is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
25	Company B	Company B is a venture capital firm specializing in investments in emerging growth companies. The firm typically invests in Internet, e-commerce, and information technology markets with a focus on systems management (security, storage, and performance management); application integration and workflow; business intelligence and analytics; business process outsourcing; groupware and collaboration applications; and e-commerce infrastructure and enabling technologies. It seeks to take a board seat in its portfolio companies. Company B is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
26	Company B	Company B is a venture capital firm specializing in seed, startup, early venture, mid venture, and late venture investments. It prefers to invest in companies in the manufacturing sector. The firm prefers to invest in companies based in the Canadian region of Saquenay, Lac-Saint-Jean. The firm typically makes equity investments between CAD $XXX ($XX) to CAD $XX ($XXX). It is based in XX. Company B operates as a subsidiary of Company XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
27	Company B	Company B is a venture capital and private equity investment arm of BNP Paribas Fortis SA/NV. It specializes in fund of funds and direct investments. In direct investments, the firm specializes in mezzanine financing, buyouts, development capital, replacement capital, mature and middle market transactions. The firm does not invest in defence industry, property development, and real estate. It seeks to invest across all sectors. The firm primarily invests in medium sized companies in XX including XX with a focus on XX. In XX, the firm operates through Company XYZ.. In XX, the firm seeks to provide private equity to undervalued and/or undermanaged companies in which the specific turnaround expertise will be used to implement the necessary steps. For the fund of funds, the firm targets primary funds in buy-out, venture capital, diversified, niche, and seeks to invest in Europe, North America, and Asia. It selectively co-invest in transactions ranging between EXX ($XX) and EXXX ($XX). The firm typically invests between EXX ($XX) and EXX ($XX) in equity per transaction in companies with enterprise values between EXX ($XX) and EXX ($XX). The firm typically invests for four to seven years. A proportion of the capital is also allocated to secondary investment opportunities. It also co-invests in later-stage transactions in Europe, initiated by the private equity funds in which it invests. Company B is headquartered in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
28	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in growth capital and buyouts. It seeks to invest in retail, consumer, technology, environment protection, environmental and renewable resources, healthcare, leisure, media, and education sectors. The firm prefers to invest in emerging markets with a focus on the Greater China Region. It prefers to invest between $XX and $XX in equity per transaction. The firm invests in both unlisted and listed enterprises and prefers to take minority stake. Company B was founded in December YYYY and is based in Central, Hong Kong with an additional offices in Shanghai, China and Beijing, China.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
29	Company B	Company B is a privately owned investment manager. Company B is based in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
30	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in management buyouts, shareholder liquidity, acquisition financing, recapitalizations, mezzanine, SBIC, and growth capital transactions in lower middle market companies. The firm seeks to invest in later stage companies. The firm seeks to invest in established companies in technology, waste and recycling, business services, restaurant and retail, consumer products and services, healthcare, education, manufacturing, hardware and software technologies, and distribution sectors. It prefers to invest in companies based in the United States. The firm seeks to invest between $XX and $XX in companies with revenues between $XX and $XX and EBITDA of at least $XX. It targets growth oriented companies that have at least three years of operating history. The firm structures its investments in the form of common stock, preferred stock/equity, and subordinated debt with warrants. It is willing to co-invest and will participate in control and minority transactions. The firm prefers a board seat in its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
31	Company B	-	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
32	Company B	Company B is a privately owned investment manager. The firm primarily provides its services to pooled investment vehicles and pension and profit sharing plans. It also caters to investment companies, charitable organizations, state or municipal government entities, corporations, non-U.S. governmental entities, and welfare benefit plans. The firm manages equity mutual funds for its clients. It invests in the public equity markets across the globe with a focus on emerging markets. The firm was founded in YYYY and is based in XX. Company B operates as a subsidiary of Company B	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
33	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital arm of Sociedad para la Promoción y Reconversión Industrial specializing in investments in expansion capital, bridge, recapitalizations, development, substitution, or re-orientation, acquisitions for exports, management buyouts and buyins, and foreign companies seeking a local partner to accompany them in their establishment process. It does not invest in finance or in real estate transactions. The firm prefers investing in early stage, seed/start-up, emerging growth, mid venture, and late venture. The firm prefers to invest in the food companies; hotels, restaurants, and leisure; media; retailing; consumer staples; energy; forest products; healthcare; industrials; consumer durables and apparel; agricultural products; beef cattle; fish products; information technology; materials; and telecommunication services. The firm seeks to invest in companies based in Spain (Basque country). It seeks to invest between $XX and $XX and on an average $XX in its portfolio companies. It seeks to invest in small and medium sized businesses. The firm seeks to invest for a period of five to ten years. Company B was founded on October Y, YYYY and is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
34	Company B	Gladstone Investment Corporation is a business development company specializing in buyouts; recapitalizations; refinancing existing debt; senior debt securities such as senior loans, senior term loans, lines of credit, and senior notes; senior subordinated debt securities such as senior subordinated loans and senior subordinated notes; junior subordinated debt securities such as subordinated notes and mezzanine loans; limited liability company interests, and warrants or options. The fund does not invest in start-ups. It seeks to invest in small and mid-sized companies based in the United States. The fund prefers to make debt investments between $XX and $XX and equity investments between $XX and $XX in companies. It seeks minority equity ownership and prefers to hold a board seat in its portfolio companies. The fund typically holds its investments for seven years and exits via sale or recapitalization, initial public offering, or sale to third party.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
35	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in growth, middle market leveraged buyout, ownership transition, add-on acquisitions, initial acquisition of family-owned or closely-held business, recapitalizations including cash-outs; small and middle markets, industry consolidations, senior debt reduction, and short-term bridge financing in mature and small and medium-sized companies. It does not invest in start up firms and turnarounds or in the technology or financial services sectors or any volatile or cyclical industry segments. The firm targets investments in aerospace and defense, energy, health care services, business services, and industrial products and services companies in the United States. It makes investments between $XX and $XX in companies, between $XX and $XX in EBITDA and between $XX and $XX in sales. The firm also provides financing between $XX and $XX in the form of loans including senior debt, second lien debt, subordinated debt, mezzanine debt, secured and unsecured subordinated loans or preferred equity and real estate sale leasebacks. The firm structures its investments in the form of common stock, preferred stock, limited liability company interests, or warrants to purchase the foregoing. It also invests in fundless sponsors and provide private company owners capital for growth, acquisitions and transition planning. The firm seeks to enter into co-investment transactions. The firm investments in debt securities have a term of no more than seven years. Company B is based in XX, with additional offices across the XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
36	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in recapitalizations, growth capital, acquisitions, management buyouts, mezzanine financing, and change of control transactions. It prefers to invest in technology, manufacturing, specialty manufacturing, industrial and business services, healthcare, value-added distribution, energy, consumer, and financial services sectors. It undertakes XX% acquisitions as well as minority investments. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
37	Company B	Hubei Kehua Insight Venturing Investment Co., Ltd. is a principal investment firm specializing in modern manufacturing, new materials, new energy, medical devices, pharmaceutical, hospitals and chain medical institutions, emerging services, hi-tech agriculture, branded consumer products, internet, and media sectors. Hubei Kehua Insight Venturing Investment Co., Ltd. was founded in July YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
38	Company B	Company B is the private equity and venture capital arm of the Industrial Bank of Korea. The firm specializes in venture investments, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate restructuring. It primarily invests in small and medium enterprises. For venture investment, the firm focuses on technology-focused companies operating in the following industries: energy, environment, knowledge-based services, information technology, biotechnology, nanotechnology, components, and materials. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
39	Company B	Company B is a venture capital arm of IFCI Ltd. The firm seeks to invest in seed/ startup and late venture firms. The unqualified segments for investment are promoters categorized as 'willful defaulters' list by RBI, industries producing or consuming Ozone depleting substances, companies engaged in the business of tobacco, Cigarette, gutkha, wine, lottery, gambling, casino etc. The firm prefers to invest in materials, transportation, energy, waste water management, electric power by wind energy, and electric power by solar energy, fuel cells, batteries, lighting equipment, machinery and automobiles and components sectors. It seeks to fund or facilitate funding to ventures involving innovative product, process, or technology in India. The firm invests in the form of equity, personal loans, and company loans through conditional and conventional loans. It seeks to invest in energy efficiency, areas spanning equipments, industrial process, lighting, building materials, energy storage, waste management, pollution control, transportation as well as forestation and reforestation activities, and renewable/non-conventional energy sectors. The firm provides Short-Term Lending to entrepreneurs and corporates, to facilitate business growth. The firm makes investments in companies rated four or above in accordance to the Small & Medium Enterprises Rating Agency (SMERA) Rating Scale or in accordance with the internal criteria. The firm provides loan amount between INR20 million ($XX million) and INRXX XX ($XX) and its tenure is up to XX months and Rate of Interest ranges between XX percent and XX percent p.a. The firm prefers to invest between SXX and SXX in its portfolio company. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
40	Company B	Company B is a venture capital investment firm specializing in seed or start up, early stage, mid venture, and growth capital funding. The firm typically invests in companies from the sectors of medical device, telecommunications, information technology, engineering, cleantech, environmental, and biotech. It prefers to invest in companies based in XX. The firm usually acquires between XX percent and XX percent of the equity in its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XX with additional offices in XX, XX, XX, and XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
41	Company B	Company B is a venture capital arm of Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations specializing in early stage, emerging growth, and later venture financing. The firm focuses on creation and post creation development and acquiring capital and developing small and medium-sized companies and also provides growth capital. It prefers to invest in telecommunications, information technology, biotechnology, biopharmaceutical, life sciences, industrials, medical, medical devices, clean technologies and advanced materials, energy, chemistry, new materials, healthcare services, and other healthcare and e-healthcare related industries. The firm seeks to invest in companies based in the XX with a focus on XX and XXX. It typically makes an initial investment up to €XX ($XX) in companies with revenues up to €XX ($XX). It may invest up to €XX ($XX) over several rounds of financing. The firm takes active part on the board of directors of its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is headquartered in XX with an additional office in the XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
42	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in seed, start up, venture capital, growth capital, buyout and buy-in transactions. It prefers to invest across all industries with a focus on technology, industrial automation, biotechnology, medical, new materials, electronics, energy, information technology, telecommunications, and industrial goods and services. The firm invests in small and medium sized companies based in Europe with a focus on France. It typically invests between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies with revenues between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). The firm seeks to acquire minority stakes. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
43	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in investments in seed/start-up, early venture, mid venture, late venture, leverage buyouts, turnaround, and growth capital transactions. It seeks to invest across all sectors. The firm usually takes minority stakes in companies based in the French region of Franche-Comté. The firm invests between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies with revenues below €XX ($XX). The firm was founded in 1996 and is based in Besançon, France. Company B operates as a subsidiary of Groupe Siparex.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
44	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in investments in management buyouts, recapitalizations, ownership changes, later-stage, and growth opportunities. The firm typically invests in manufacturing, service, distribution, and technology businesses across the United States. It typically invests between $XX and $XX in the first round of financing in companies as a member of a syndicate that may be providing $XX to $XX. The firm typically invests in companies seeking less than $XX and that have annual sales between $XX and $XX. It often co-invests with other venture funds, prefers to lead or play an active co-investor role, and seeks participation on the Board of Directors or observation rights. It may also participate in Audit, Compensation and Management Selection Committees of the portfolio companies. The firms favoured investment structures include subordinated debt with warrants to acquire common stock or conversion rights, preferred stock with warrants to acquire common stock or conversion rights, and common stock often representing a minority ownership position. It typically requires investment agreement provisions (e.g. put rights, registration rights, etc.) to provide for exits. Company B was founded in YYYY and is headquartered in XX with additional offices in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
45	Company B	Company B is a venture capital firm specializing in investments in imagining or incubating stages, pre-seed, seed, and early stage companies led by women and minority entrepreneurs. It does not invest in lifestyle businesses like restaurants, small retail stores, and a small manufacturing operation. The firm seeks to invest in the information technology, advanced energy, electronics controls, sensors and advanced materials, and biosciences industries. It primarily invests in Northeast Ohio, focusing on the 21 county region including Ashland, Ashtabula, Carroll, Columbiana, Crawford, Cuyahoga, Erie, Geauga, Holmes, Huron, Lake, Lorain, Mahoning, Medina, Portage, Richland, Stark, Summit, Trumbull, Tuscarawas, and Wayne counties. The firm seeks to invest in companies between $XX and $XX and to average about $XX million. It typically invests in those companies less than $XX in revenues and which can have $XX to $XX in annual revenues within five years to seven years and which have a $XX potential market for its products and services. The firm prefers to invest through equity, convertible debt, and grants. It seeks an observer or board of directors seat of its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
46	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital arm of Korea Investment Holdings Co., Ltd. specializing in venture debt, mezzanine, middle market, emerging growth, buyouts, start up, early stage, mid venture, late venture, and growth capital investments. The firm typically invests in mobile phone components, internet, software, information and communication, electricity, petrochemistry and energy, metal and non-metal, machinery, distribution, electronic components, semiconductor equipment, biotechnology, and import industries. It does not invest in accommodation and food industry, golf course and ski resort operation, and casino operation. It considers investments in South Korea and China. Company B was established in YYYY and is based in Seoul, South Korea with additional offices in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
47	Company B	-	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
48	Company B	Lombard Odier Funds (Switzerland) SA is a privately owned investment manager. The firm manages mutual funds. It invests in the public equity markets of Switzerland. It was formerly known as Company XYZ (Switzerland) SA was founded in YYYY and is based in XX. The firm operates as a subsidiary of Company XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
49	Company B	Company B offers portfolio management services to private and institutional clients. Its equity investment strategies include growth, small-cap, large-cap, hedging, social screening, and quantitative. Company B invests globally, specifically in the United States, Canada, Europe, and Far East. The firm is based in XX with additional offices in XX. It operates as a subsidiary of Company XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
50	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in investments in small and middle market recapitalizations, buyouts, and acquisitions of high-quality mature companies. The firm focuses on change of control/majority equity transactions involving ownership transition, shareholder liquidity, and corporate sale/divestiture situations. It invests in companies across a wide range of industry sectors with a strong emphasis on industrial products, healthcare products, and trading and distribution sectors. The firm also may consider investments in business services, consumer discretionary, consumer staples, industrial services, and materials. The firm seeks to invest in companies headquartered in the United States. It prefers to invest in companies with enterprise values between $XX and $XX and in companies with revenues more than $XX and EBITDA more than $XX. The firm seeks to invest family capital. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Chicago, Illinois.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
51	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in mezzanine financing for leverage buyouts, acquisitions, strategic acquisitions, recapitalizations, growth capital, and long-term debt investments in small and medium sized emerging growth and middle market companies. In mezzanine investments, the firm seeks to invest in the form of fixed rate subordinated debt with an equity component such as warrants. It also seeks investments in the form of senior debt, preferred stock, debt-only, and equity instruments. Within leverage buyouts and acquisition financings, the firm works with both existing management groups and new investors with a focus on middle market buyouts. For long-term debt, it provides senior or subordinated debt for a period between five years and ten years to companies seeking to fund permanent working capital needs and capital expansion. The firm does not invest in retail or financial service industries. It seeks to invest in healthcare, distribution, services, consumer products, manufacturing, software, and technology sectors. The firm primarily invests in companies having significant operations in Massachusetts. However, it does not typically requires the company to be incorporated in Massachusetts and also seeks investments in companies having operations throughout the United States and internationally. The firm seeks to invest between $XXX $XX in companies with sales value between $XX and $XX. For long term debt investments, it invests between $XX and $XX with interest rates fixed over the term of the loan. The firm invests between $XX and $XX in technology and non-technology companies. It invests in various stages of development and also seeks follow on investments. The firm prefers to take a board seat and act as a board observer at the portfolio company. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
52	Company B	Company B is a principal investment firm. The firm was established on February YYYY and is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
53	Company B	Company B is a privately owned asset manager.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
54	Company B	-	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
55	Company B	-	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
56	Company B	Company B. is a venture capital firm specializing in investments in start-ups and growth-stage companies. The firm typically invests in the information technology sector with a focus on software and hardware infrastructure. It prefers to invest in venture companies based in Busan and Jeollabuk-do. Company B. was established in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
57	Company B	Company B is an investment firm specializing in direct and fund of fund investments. Within direct, it specializes in venture capital, start-ups, growth capital including financing organic growth and accompanying external growth operations, middle market investments, expansion capital, turnarounds, restructuring equity, reorganization of capital ownerships, post seed financing, funding post early-stage company creations, and buyout transactions such as leveraged buyouts, owner's buyouts, management buyouts, and management buy-ins. The firm prefers to invest in small and medium sized companies in all industries with a focus on environment in France and North Africa. It typically makes equity investments between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in portfolio companies with a maximum sales value of $XX; between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) for venture capital transactions; and between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in post early-stage company creations. The firm invests up to €XX ($XX) in growth capital and capital venture, between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in small caps, and above €XX ($XX) in mid caps. It can also co-invest and seeks to invest in the diversification of ownership of directors. The firm plays the role of a minority and majority shareholder in deals aiming at liquidity after five to seven years. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XX with additional offices across XX. It operates as a subsidiary of Company XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
58	Company B	Company B specializes in direct as well as fund of funds investments. Within direct investments, it makes its investments in unsecured mezzanine, loan capital, early stage and late stage investments in all sectors. The firm typically invests in small and medium sized businesses based in the North East of England. It invests between EXXX ($XX) and £XX ($XX) in equity and £XX ($XX) and £XXX ($8,000) in loans to companies with maximum turnover up to £XXX ($XX). Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
59	Company B	Company B is a venture capital and private equity firm specializing in seed/startup, early stage, late stage, growth capital, buyouts, recapitalization, middle market, and turnaround transactions. The firm does not invest in biotechnology. It prefers to invest in small and medium enterprises and innovative companies operating in all sectors including media, distribution, software, Internet, sustainable development, industry, and value added services in France and the rest of Europe. The firm typically invests between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies with annual sales between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX), and enterprise value between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). It provides financing through equity and quasi equity. The firm seeks both majority and minority shareholdings in its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
60	Company B	Company B. provides its services primarily to pooled investment vehicles. The firm also caters to pension and profit sharing plans, banking or thrift institutions, charitable organizations, state or municipal government entities, government affiliated agencies, and other businesses. The firm manages client focused equity and fixed income portfolios. It also launches and manages equity, fixed income, and balanced mutual funds for its clients. The firm also manages hedge funds for its clients. The firm invests in the public equity, fixed income, and real estate markets of Asia including Japan. It also invests in investment trusts, exchange traded funds, and alternative markets for its clients. The firm invests in growth and value stocks of small and mid cap companies. It employs a combination of fundamental and quantitative analysis along with a bottom-up stock selection approach while making its investments. The firm performs in-house research for making investments. Company B. was founded on December Y, YYYY and is based in XX with additional offices in XX. Company B. operates as a subsidiary of Company XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
61	Company B	-	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
62	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in mid venture, late venture, turnarounds, restructuring, and buyouts of small privately held businesses or divisions of public companies. The firm does not invest in businesses involving complex technologies, non income producing portfolios, real estate, restaurants, and retail. It focuses its investments in business-to-business service companies, business-to-business computer value-added reseller industry, and manufacturing and distribution companies. It prefers to invest in companies based in XX, and small businesses located in XX. The firm also considers overseas investments. It invests between $XX and $XX in its portfolio companies, but may consider larger transactions in select cases. The firm will also consider smaller acquisitions if the company's operations can be merged into its existing portfolio companies or if the company is located in Minnesota. It seeks complete or majority control of its portfolio companies. The firm primarily invests out of personal capital, accredited investors, and bank debt. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
63	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in mid venture, late venture, financing acquisitions, turnaround, and middle market transactions. It makes investments in growth capital, buyout, industry consolidation, and recapitalization. The firm also makes fund of fund investments. It seeks to invest in underperforming and under-managed portfolio companies run by private equity and venture capital firms. The firm acquires multiple businesses that a seller is divesting through corporate carve outs, multinational corporate carve outs, private corporate carve outs, public to private, private family disinvestment and secondary direct market. While investing in secondary market, the firm prefers to buy portfolio worth $XX or more. It invests across all sectors particularly in consumer oriented businesses, media, online healthcare and medical supply retail, healthcare equipment distribution, health and medical insurance, industry specific software. The firm is geography agnostic and invests in the United Kingdom; United States with a focus on North America; and Europe with a focus on Western Europe. It invests transactions of value between £XX ($XXX) and above £XXX ($XXX). It typically invests between $XX and $XX in companies having a combined enterprise value between $XX and $XX. It invests in companies that comprise a minimum of three businesses. The firm seeks to take control positions and exit its investment within two years. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
64	Company B	Company B is a principal investment firm. The firm seeks to invest in sectors like environmental services with a focus on waste management and recycling; infrastructure; renewable energy with a focus on wind, solar and tidal energy technologies as well as bio ethanol; and food and distribution. It seeks to invest in companies based in XX and XX. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
65	Company B	Company B is a privately owned investment manager. The firm provides its services to high net worth individuals, families and businesses. It launches and manages equity and balanced mutual funds for its clients. The firm invests in public equity markets of Brazil. It uses a combination of fundamental and technical analysis to make its investments. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
66	Company B		Company XYZ (Current Investment)
67	Company B	-	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
68	Company B	Company B is a privately owned investment manager. The firm invests in the public equity markets of Japan. It operates as a subsidiary of Resona Bank Ltd. Company B is based in XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
69	Company B	Company B is a privately owned investment manager. The firm manages equity, fixed income, and balanced mutual funds for its clients. It makes its investments in the public equity and fixed income markets across the globe. Company B was formed in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
70	Company B	Company B is a privately owned investment manager. The firm primarily provides its services to institutions, pensions and private clients. It launches and manages equity, fixed income, and balanced mutual funds and hedge funds for its clients. The firm invests in the public equity and fixed income markets across the globe. It was founded in YYYY and is based in Company XYZ. Schroder Investment Management (Hong Kong) operates as a subsidiary of Company XYZ.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
71	Company B	Company B is a venture capital firm specializing in investments in seed, start-ups, early venture, and mid venture stages. The firm does not invest in financial institutions, real estate or marketing companies. It typically invests in the industrial sector and in business projects. Within share capital, the firm seeks to invest in small and medium sized enterprises based in Biscay. It typically invests between €XXX ($XX) and €XX ($XXX) with a maximum of €XX ($XX) combining both share capital and participative loans. The firm primarily makes investments in companies with a minimum share capital of €XX ($XX). It seeks to make minority investments with maximum shareholding of XX percent. Within participative loans, the firm primarily makes investments in small and medium sized enterprises in Biscay. It invests up to a maximum amount of €XX ($XX) and for a maximum period of seven years. It seeks to exit its investments within a period of five years and seven years. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
72	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in growth capital. The firm prefers to invest in companies operating in information technology, information communication, biotechnology, clothing, cultural contents such as movies and animation, education, energy, sports, new technology, and new industry sectors. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in XXX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
73	Company B	Company B specializes in medium-sized unlisted companies, mainly in the Southeastern part of France. The fund seeks to acquire a minority share in its portfolio companies.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
74	Company B	Company B, formerly known as UFG-Siparex is an investment firm specializing in direct and fund of funds investments. For direct investments, the firm focuses on private equity, venture capital, and mezzanine investments at all stage: seed, startups, post startups, mature companies, leveraged buyouts, buyins, emerging growth, growth capital, pre-IPO and turnarounds. It usually invests in non-listed companies but also considers investments in listed companies. Within fund of fund investments, the firm invests in leverage buyout funds, growth capital funds, and also considers venture capital funds. The firm prefers to invest in information technology and communication that includes microelectronics; nanotechnologies; Internet and software; networks and telecoms, life science, that includes imaging/diagnostics; preventive medicine; personalized medicine, eco friendly technology that includes energy management and stocking; green chemicals; water and air treatment and human services. Regarding venture capital transactions, the firm usually invests between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies based in Europe, mainly in north of France, Belgium and Luxembourg. It usually takes a minority stake in the companies it acquires. For growth capital investments, the firm usually makes equity investments of between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies older than XX years. For private equity investments, including leveraged buyouts, the firm typically invests between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies with annual sales between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). It takes a minority or majority stake in the companies it acquires. For growth capital and private equity investments, it seeks to invest in commercial and personal services, industry, specialized distribution, and consumer goods. The firm also considers investments in the rest of the world for direct investments. For fund of funds investments, it focuses on small middle market companies. It typically invests between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in funds located in France, Europe, North America, Asia and emerging countries. It prefers to invest in new technology, telecommunications, electronics, biotechnology, healthcare, distribution,	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
75	Company B	Company B is a privately owned investment manager. The firm provides its services to individuals, companies, financial institutions, and foundation. It manages separate client focused portfolios. The firm launches and manages equity, fixed income, and balanced mutual funds for its clients. It invests in the public equity and fixed income markets of Poland. The firm was founded in YYYY and is based in Warsaw, Poland.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
76	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in early growth, growth capital, and lower middle market investments. The firm primarily invests in healthcare, which includes technology transfer, Internet, education, medical devices, pharmaceuticals, and healthcare services; cleantech, which includes alternative energy, alternative fuels, renewable energy, and environmental conservation; consumer and brands and their services; retail; industrials and manufacturing; and professional and business service sectors. It prefers to invest in companies based in Greater China, particularly Tianjin, Nanjing, Xi'an, and Chengdu, and Hong Kong. The firm typically invests between $XX and $XX . It seeks to have a minority stake and take a board seat on its portfolio companies. The firm prefers to invest for a period of two to five years. It does not invest in infrastructure, power generation, and start up companies. Company B was founded in November YYYY and is based in Central, Hong Kong, with additional offices in Shanghai, China; and Suzhou, China.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
77	Company B	Company B is an investment arm of Anderson Enterprises LLC specializing in all stages of development and other growth-oriented opportunities including incubation and PIPE. The firm seeks to invest in communications, software, storage, information technology, and life sciences. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Rockford, Illinois.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
78	Company B	Company B is a venture capital and private equity firm specializing in seed/startup, early venture, growth capital, incubation of small to medium companies, and emerging growth investments. It prefers to invest in information technology focusing on semiconductor & ASIC design, optical electronics, critical components, telecommunications infrastructure, internet infrastructure, broadband communications, and e-commerce software industries. The firm also prefers to invest in biotechnology focusing on biochip & bioinformatics, transgenics & tissue engineering, gene therapy related, herbal & Chinese medicine, biomaterial, medical devices, drug delivery system, & E-Health. It seeks to invest in companies based in Asia Pacific, Taiwan and Silicon Valley, USA. The firm prefers to take a seat on the board of directors of some portfolio companies. It prefers to exit its investment within three to five years. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Taipei, Taiwan.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
79	Company B	Tokyo Small and Medium Business Investment & Consultation Co. Ltd. is a private equity and venture capital firm which specializes in investment in manufacturing companies. Tokyo Small and Medium Business Investment & Consultation Co. Ltd. was founded in YYYY and is based in Tokyo, Japan.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
80	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in buyouts and middle market transactions. It invests in special situations and medium-size businesses. The firm seeks to invest in business services, health, industrials, and consumer companies. Within business services sector, the firm invests in food logistics and storage providers, shipping companies, and multidisciplinary installation services. It prefers to invest in Western Europe and Northern Europe with a focus on Germany, Switzerland, Austria; Denmark, Finland, Norway, and Sweden, and German-speaking countries. It prefers to invest between $XXX and $XX in companies with enterprise value between $XX and $XX. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Jersey, Channel Islands with additional offices in London, United Kingdom; Luxembourg; Frankfurt, Germany; Stockholm, Sweden; and Shanghai, China.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
81	Company B	Company B is a principal investment firm specializing in private equity and venture capital. The firm also invests in foreign based venture capital funds. It typically seeks to take majority stakes in established companies based in the Netherlands and Belgium or to make minority venture investments of at least 5% as a co-investor. The firm typically invests between €XXX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in its portfolio companies and seeks to exit within three years to seven years. Company B is headquartered in Eindhoven, the Netherlands.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
82	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in acquisitions of medium sized companies, repositioning and turnaround, buyout, industry consolidation, recapitalization, and restructuring. The firm focuses on companies engaged in manufacturing and wholesaling of household and personal products and consumer or industrial products. It invests in European companies. The firm seeks to invest in companies with annual revenues in the range of €XX ($XX) to €XXX ($XX). Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Utrecht, The Netherlands.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
83	Company B	-	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
84	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in investments in expansions, restructuring, management buyouts, and management buyins. It prefers to invest in industry, business services, agro/food, trade, services, production, plastics, and water and environment technologies but may consider investments outside its preferential industries. The firm typically invests in Netherlands with a focus on Overijssel, Noord-Oostpolder, and Zuidwest Drenthe. It typically takes a substantial majority stake and prefers to invest alongside management. The firm typically invests between €XX XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). Company B is based in Zwolle, Netherlands.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
85	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in management buyouts, recapitalizations, and control investments in middle market companies. It also seeks mezzanine investment opportunities in connection with leveraged acquisitions, recapitalizations, later-stage growth financings and/or balance sheet restructuring. The firm typically invests in following sectors: basic manufacturing, security, safety and defense, business services, outsourced services, and information technology. The firm seeks to invest in companies with revenues between $XX and $XX and atleast $XX in EBITDA. The firm prefers to invest in companies or carve-outs involving management-led buyouts, family-owned businesses where the owner is seeking liquidity or retirement, companies that require new capital for growth, strategic initiatives or balance sheet restructurings. Its mezzanine financing commonly consists of unsecured subordinated notes and may include a non-control equity participation in the form of convertible notes, redeemable and convertible preferred stock, warrants, or common stock. Generally the notes include a fixed cash coupon that is reflective of current market conditions and in certain situations, are structured to include PIK (Payment-In-Kind) interest in conjunction with the cash interest. The term of the notes will generally be five to seven years, usually with no amortization of principal until maturity. Company B is based in New York, New York.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
86	Company B	Company B is a venture capital and private equity firm specializing in investing in angel and early-stage, start-ups, turnarounds, buyouts, special situations, and leveraged finance. It specializes in identifying under-performing opportunities in areas such as banking, health and wellness, service industries, technology, resources and manufacturing. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Vancouver, Canada with an additional office in San Houston, Texas.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
87	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in middle-market industrial companies. It does not generally pursue start-up or early stage companies or mature businesses in technology, oil and gas, or real estate or businesses that are subject to substantial governmental regulation. The firm seeks to invest in underperforming companies, corporate divestures, buyouts, consolidation, family businesses in turnaround situations, and add-on acquisitions. It typically makes investments in manufacturing companies involved in stamping, plastic injection molding, die casting, iron foundry, assembly, machining, and similar processes. The firm seeks to invest in North America, with a preference for the Midwest United States. The firm looks for companies with revenues upto $XX and EBITDA from negative to marginally acceptable performance. The firm prefers partnering with current management, but can provide a new team if needed. Company B was founded in YYYY and is headquartered in Chicago, Illinois.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
88	Company B	Company B, formerly known as the Midwest Group, is a private equity firm specializing in direct and fund of funds investments. The firm makes investments in buyouts of institutional, family or strategic owners, corporate carve-outs of non-core assets/divestitures, acquisition roll-ups. For direct investments, the firm seeks to make equity investments in small public and lower middle market companies, management buyouts, growth capital, restructurings, XXX bankruptcy auctions, recapitalizations, corporate orphans, industry consolidations, public-to-private transactions, turnaround, distressed companies, and divestitures. The firm also makes debt investments in public and private lower middle market companies, senior working capital revolvers, one-stop credit facilities, mezzanine financing, preferred equity, senior and junior secured loans, senior and junior secured credit facilities, other forms of junior capital, acquisitions, second lien loans, quasi-equity instruments, debt structures with an equity component, warrants, and subordinated terms loans. For fund of funds investments, the firm seeks to invest in hedge funds. It seeks to invest in all industries with a focus on software and information technology, healthcare, industrials, media, transportation, manufacturing, business/ information services, consumer goods, communication, and financial technology services sectors. Within software and information technology, the firm invests in application software, information technology services and data storage, telephony device manufacturing, telephony service providers, and business process outsourcing. Within the healthcare sector, it focuses on clinical research, medical technology and software, surgical devices, medical equipment manufacturing and service, and healthcare services. Within the transportation sector, the firm invests in airlines, aviation services, aircraft sales and trading, trucking, logistics providers, distribution, warehousing, travel related services, and rail services. Within the manufacturing and consumer goods sectors, it invests in auto parts manufacturing, plastic injection molding, packaging, building materials, financial services, and education companies. Within the financial technology services sector, the	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
89	Company B	Company B is a venture capital firm specializing in investments in development and expansion stage companies and startups. It seeks to invest through equity or equity-related securities such as common or preferred stock. The firm does not invest in companies that produce negative effects on the environment or that may incur environmental liabilities, natural resource projects, and real estate development. It typically invests in companies that manufactures or process products directly for export and in indirect exporters that supply component and services to maquiladoras and other export manufactures as a substitute for imports. The firm seeks to invest in export industries and related services with a focus on plastics, injection molding, electronic components, food processing, packaging, glass products, leather goods, and furniture. It typically invests in Northwestern states of Mexico with a focus on Baja California, Sonora, Chihuahua, and Sinaloa. The firm also invests in firms domiciled outside of Mexico that are moving production to the country. It seeks to invest between $XXX and $XX in companies with revenues between $XX and $XX and anticipated growth in excess of XX percent per year. The firm primarily invests in companies with exports in excess of XX percent of total sales. It typically acquires a minority ownership interest and seeks to have a board seat in its portfolio companies. The firm can co-invest with other investors to participate in larger transactions. It generally exits an investment between three years and five years through public offerings and buy backs. Maguey Management Ltd. was founded in YYYY and is based in Dallas, Texas with additional office at Wellesley, Massachusetts.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
90	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in growth financing, leveraged buyouts, consolidations, management buyouts, recapitalizations, corporate divestitures, institutional investor exits, and middle market investments. The firm prefers to invest in manufacturing, business services, consumer products, durable goods, education, food service, healthcare, industrial distribution, natural gas equipment, furniture, financial services, software, printing, die casting, metal stamping, injection molding, logistics, branded food, contract packaging, agricultural equipment, capital goods, housewares, direct marketing, building products, food retailing, disposable consumer products, distribution and wholesalers, outsourcing, and specialty retail sectors. It typically invests in companies headquartered in North America with a focus on Canada. The firm seeks to invest in companies having annual revenues over $XX, annual cash flow over $XX, and an EBITDA over $XX. It invests in companies with organic cash flow of at least XX percent per year. The firm arranges XX percent of the investment. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Minneapolis, Minnesota.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
91	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in buyout investments. It primarily invests in the mold making industry and in companies that focuses on tool design and manufacturing. The firm became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Incs, Inc. on February Y, YYYY. It was founded on YYYY and is based in Tokyo, Japan.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
92	Company B	Company B operates as an investment arm of Nomura Holdings Inc. It is a private equity firm specializing in investments in companies of various sizes, from mid-size companies to large-scale corporations. The firm typically invests in management buyouts, strategic delisting, business succession, recapitalizations, joint ventures, spin-offs of non-core business operations, and turnarounds. It prefers to invest in diverse sectors from manufacturing to the service industries. The firm primarily invests in companies based in Japan. It invests Nomura Group's own capital. Company B was founded on July YYYY and is based in Tokyo, Japan.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
93	Company B	CGS Management casparis gloor lanz & co. is a private equity firm specializing in add-on acquisitions, buy-and-build approach, turnaround, spin-offs of mid-sized private companies with succession issues, and buyouts in small to medium-sized companies. It also specializes in investments in middle markets, mature, growth capital, recapitalization, and industry consolidation. At the firm, add-on acquisitions are usually performed by the respective lead investment portfolio company. The firm focuses its investments in industrial, electronics and engineering, machinery and equipment, measurement and control systems / sensors, hand and power tools, construction supplies, and plastic production and equipment sectors. The firm primarily invests in European companies with a focus on German speaking countries and Austria, Liechtenstein, Germany, and Switzerland (DACH region). For add acquisitions, it invests globally. It seeks to invest between CHF XX ($XX) and CHF XX ($XX) in its portfolio companies. It seeks to invest in companies with revenues between CHF XX ($XX) and CHFXX($XX). CGS Management casparis gloor lanz & co. was founded in YYYY and is based in Pfäffikon, Switzerland.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
94	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in growth capital, middle market, buyout, and mature investments. For debt management, it invests in senior and mezzanine corporate debt in typically large and private companies in United Kingdom, Europe, Asia, and North America. It makes private equity investments in business services, consumer, healthcare, renewable energy, wind, and industrial sector. Within business services, the firm seeks to invest in sub sectors such as testing, inspection, and certification; BPO and consultancy; human capital including staffing, education, and training businesses; facilities management; support services to industrial sectors such as oil and gas and utilities; logistics and infrastructure support services including logistics, distribution, waste, and rental. In the consumer sector it focuses on consumer goods; e-commerce; retail; food and drinks; and leisure. In the healthcare sector, the firm focuses on pharmaceuticals and biotechnology including specialty pharma, generics / OTC, drug delivery, and animal health; healthcare Services including activities such as elderly and specialty care, including caring for people in their own homes, in hospital and in community facilities, as well as operational services such as outsourced support, clinical services and B2B contract services; medical devices and technology including devices, medical equipment and consumables, diagnostics, and healthcare IT. In the industrial sector, it focuses on automotive, chemicals, construction and building products, electronics and electricals, flow control, and oil, gas and power. The firm also makes infrastructure investments where it focuses principally on the utilities including energy transmission and storage, electricity and gas distribution, water, power generation, and communication network; transportation including airports, ports, ferries, toll roads, and rail; and social infrastructure sector including primary and secondary PFI, public private partnerships, healthcare, education, and government accommodation. In infrastructure it invests primarily in utilities, transportation and social infrastructure in the United Kingdom, France, Italy, Europe, and Ireland. The firm prefers to invest in companies across Europe	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
95	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in leveraged buyout, management buy-in, management buyout, growth capital, PIPEs, public to private, build-up, and middle market transactions. The firm does not invest in banking, insurance, real estate, and defence. It invests in all other sectors, with a focus on technology, industrial goods and services, other manufactured products, buildings and public work, tertiary, consumer market, business services, and health industry. The firm seeks to invest in companies based in France. It typically invests between €XX ($XXX) and €XXX ($XX) in companies with enterprise value between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) and revenues between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). The firm typically holds its investments between four years and six years. It seeks to take a majority or minority stake and prefers to take a board seat in its portfolio companies. The firm prefers to invest in equity in the form of capital or convertible bonds. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Paris, France.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
96	Company B	Company B is a venture capital and private equity firm specializing in late venture, growth capital and turnaround investments. The firm does not have a sector preference and seeks to invest in small and middle sized companies based in Norrland; the Northern region of Sweden. It does not provide loans or invest in seed or early venture. The firm takes minority stakes, between XX percent and XX percent and invests between SEKXX ($XX) and SEKXX ($XXX). It invests in equity or convertible loans and can perform co-investments. The firm seeks to exit its investments within seven years. The firm uses its balance sheet investments. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Skellefteå, Sweden.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
97	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in acquisitions and buyouts; turnaround; corporate carve-outs and divestments of large conglomerates; companies in distress and financial crisis; succession solutions for family owned businesses; difficult shareholder situations; add-on acquisitions; and balance-sheet restructuring of medium-sized privately-held businesses or assets of large groups, that are no longer part of the core business. It has no sector focus and seeks to invest in distressed production, services, and commerce, with a focus on engineering, automotive, consumer goods, electronics, pharmaceuticals, chemicals, and life science and in manufacturing related services. The firm typically invests in companies headquartered in Europe including Western Europe, with an emphasis on German-speaking countries, France, Italy, and United Kingdom. It seeks to provide €XX ($XX) equity per investment with a total of €XX ($XX) for new acquisitions in companies with EBITDA margin negative to more than XX percent. The firm typically invests in companies with enterprise value of up to €XX ($XX), sales between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX), and also provides add-on investments to companies with sales of at least €XX ($XX). It seeks only majority participation. The firm invests its owner's capital. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Munich, Germany.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
98	Company B	Company B is a venture capital and private equity firm specializing in growth equity, growth buyout, acquisitions, middle and upper middle market buyouts, management buyouts, turnaround, buyins, company succession, international expansion, strategic repositioning, recapitalization, and buy and builds. The firm seeks to invest in business services and financial services including Airport services and outsourcing, retail, industrial retail, consumer, education, technology, media, telecom, and leisure (airport related), entertainment, distribution, healthcare, energy, pharmaceuticals, mining, oil and gas, and industrial sectors including infrastructure and manufacturing. It prefers to invest in companies based in Western Europe with a focus on United Kingdom, France, Turkey, Germany, Italy, Netherlands, and Spain; Central Europe focusing on Baltic States, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech and Slovak Republics, Hungary, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovenia, Turkey, and Ukraine; Latin America investing primarily in Mexico, Brazil, Colombia, Argentina, Peru but will consider opportunities in other Latin American countries; Asia Pacific/ South Asia focusing on China, and India; and North America. In China the firm prefers to invest in the chemicals, healthcare, retail, consumer, and leisure sectors. The firm typically invests between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies with enterprise value between €XX ($XX) and $XX and revenues between €XX($XX) and $XX. Within developing market buyout, it typically, makes equity investments between $XX and $XXX in companies with enterprise value between $XX and $XXX. For venture capital investments, the firm seeks to make equity investment between $XXX and $XX. It prefers to exit an investment between three years and seven years or until the company is ready to move to its next stage of development either through a trade sale to another company, through flotation or IPO's, or acquisition by another private equity firm. The firm primarily seeks a majority stake in its portfolio companies. However, it also considers minority stake. The firm uses third party debt financing as well as equity to finance its investments. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Paris, France with additional offices in Frankfurt, Germany and Milan, Italy.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
99	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in leveraged buyouts of mid-sized companies and in investments in mature and middle market companies. It invests in family owned companies or corporate spinouts of subsidiaries of large groups whose activity no longer fit the parent company's strategy, listed companies with a view to delist, and growing businesses with build-up opportunities. The firm seeks to invest in unquoted companies in Europe with focus on France, Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands, Switzerland, and Austria. It prefers to invest between €XX ($XX) to €XX ($XX) per transaction in companies having enterprise values between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) and minimum revenues of €XX ($XX). The firm typically takes majority control and arranges for founders or key managers to co-invest. It seeks to exit its investments between XX years and XX years through the floating of the company on stock markets; trade sale with industrial groups; and sale to a new group of shareholders. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Paris, France with additional offices in Frankfurt, Germany and Milan, Italy.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
100	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in growth equity investments in middle market and buyout companies. The firm typically invests in healthcare and industrial sector. Within Industrial sector, it focuses on product and process design software, instrumentation for the chemical processing and environmental industries. Within healthcare sector, the firm focuses on, life sciences, pharmaceuticals, and biotechnology sectors. It typically invests between $XX and $XX per deal in companies with revenues between $XX and $XX. The firm prefers to be the first and lead institutional investor in its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Wellesley, Massachusetts.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
101	Company B	Company B is an investment firm specializing in direct and fund of fund investments in middle market. Within direct investments, it specializes in private equity and venture capital investments. It has a multi-stage equity investment strategy, investing in late ventures, growth capital, leveraged acquisitions, management buyouts, buy-ins, and recapitalizations. It typically invests in technology and telecommunications; retail and consumer; financial and business services; media; and healthcare sectors. Within technology and telecommunications, the firm focuses on wireless and wireline industry segments, growth technologies, applications, components, systems, software, and services companies. In the retail and consumer sector, it focuses on companies in consumers mixing luxury and value brands, health and fitness, leisure and family entertainment, and convenience and extreme value. Within healthcare, the firm's focus includes companies engaged in clinical stage development of therapeutics, specialty and generic pharmaceuticals, medical products and devices, and healthcare services. In the financial and business services sector, it concentrates on companies in asset management, retail distribution, specialty finance, insurance, transaction processing and payments businesses, processing and outsourcing services, technical services, inspection and maintenance services, HR services, facility management services, distribution and logistics services, information services, and general support services. Within media, the firm focuses on traditional media and in the emerging areas of online, digital television, and wireless. It seeks to invest in companies based in the United Kingdom, North America with a focus on the United States, Brazil, Japan, Israel, China, India, and Western Europe. Within Brazil, the firm seeks to invest in businesses with revenues between XX reais ($XXX) and XX reais ($XX). The firm typically invests between $XX and €XX ($XX) in companies having enterprise values between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). It actively participates on the boards of all its portfolio companies, typically acquires majority stakes, and does not syndicate investment outside its investor	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
102	Company B	Baring Private Equity Partners España S.A. is a venture capital and private equity firm specializing in early stage, mid-market, mezzanine, management buyouts, management buyins, shareholder restructuring, expansion, build-ups, and growth capital financings. It does not invest in the finance and real estate sectors. The firm also seeks to invest in family businesses undergoing a structural or generational change. It prefers to invest in all sectors including services with the exception of the financial and real estate. The firm seeks to invest in small and medium sized companies based in Portugal and Spain including the Asturias and Murcia regions, but may occasionally invest in other European Union countries. It seeks to make equity investments between $6 million and €XX ($XX) in companies with sales between €XX ($XXX) and €XX ($XXX). The firm also seeks to hold a Board seat in its portfolio companies. Baring Private Equity Partners España S.A. was founded in YYYY and is headquartered in Madrid, Spain with additional offices in Barcelona, Spain; Murcia, Spain; and Avilés, Spain.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
103	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm and venture capital firm specializing in management buyouts, start-ups, mature, late venture, PIPES, corporate carve-outs, corporate divestitures, recapitalization including balance sheet recapitalizations, distressed debt purchases, primary and secondary debt, out of court restructurings and turnarounds, special and distressed situations, bankruptcy transactions, and equity investments in upper middle market private and public companies. The firm also provides debtor-in-possession financing, restructuring of existing credit facilities, bankruptcy or foreclosure (363 sale, plan sponsorship, article XX foreclosure, etc). It seeks to invest across all industries. Further, it focuses on following sectors: aircraft, shipping, real estate, project finance, business services, manufacturing, healthcare, retail, food/agriculture, and specialty finance. The firm primarily invests in companies based in the U.S., Canada, Europe, Latin America, and Caribbean with a focus on Spain. It typically invests between $XX and $XX per transaction in companies with revenues between $XX and $XX. It seeks to invest in firms with enterprise values between $XX and $XX and EBITDA of maximum $XX. In the context of recapitalization, the firm invests in the form of bank and public debt that includes senior bank debt, junior secured debt, mezzanine debt, bonds, preferred/convertible stock, trade claims, seller notes, capital leases, and other obligations. It prefers to make controlling investments in its portfolio companies but can also make minority investments. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Miami, Florida with additional offices in United States; Luxembourg; London, United Kingdom.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
104	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in investments in middle market companies. The firm invests in all industries. It prefers to invest between $XX and $XX and can invest more or less in companies with EBITDA or operating cash flow between $XX and $XX. The firm invests in the form of senior and junior secured, unsecured, and subordinated debt securities and loans including cash flow, asset backed, and junior lien facilities and equity securities. It's equity investments can be structured in the form of warrants, preferred stock, common equity co-investments, and direct investments in common stock. The firm debt investments are principally structured to provide for current cash interest and to a lesser extent non-cash interest, particularly with subordinated debt investments, through a pay-in-kind (PIK) feature. It can also make non-control investments. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in New York, New York with an additional office in Chicago, Illinois.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
105	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in growth capital financing for add-on acquisitions, internal growth, management buyouts of private companies or divisions of larger companies, recapitalizations of closely held or family owned companies that provide liquidity to the sellers while allowing for continuing ownership, and industry consolidation transactions of lower middle market companies. The firm prefers to invest equity capital in niche dominant market. The firm does not invest in start ups and early stage companies. It also does not invest in real estate, restaurants, retail, technology, telecommunications, healthcare, insurance, and financial services sectors. The firm seeks to make investments in the manufacturing, business services, and value added distribution sectors. It seeks to invest in sectors including service providers to direct marketing industry including creative services, database management, industrial textiles, printing or laser imaging, organic agricultural yield enhancing products, various binding, finishing, trimming processes, address verification, labeling, insertion and tabbing, government services, beverage packaging and packaging the final product. The firm focuses its investments in environmental services including stormwater system design, energy services, utility maintenance and repair services, safety and consumable components manufacturers, engineering and maintenance; ports, harbors, and water system design and engineering; environmental remediation; industrial hygiene services; and general site assessment, regulatory compliance, and environmental consulting work. It also invests in companies that manufacture institutional and industrial cleaning chemicals or janitorial and sanitation chemicals including floor and window cleaners, air care products, disinfectants and sanitizers, hand cleaners, deodorants, insecticides, herbicides, water treatment products, and lubricants. The firm makes investments in highly engineered metal components in metal parts and specialty metals in value added manufacturers for the aerospace, military or defense, electronics, industrial, industrial outsourcing, and medical industries. It also seeks opportunities in the specialty chemicals and coatings industries with a focus on paints.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
106	Company B	BNDES PARTICIPAÇÕES S/A – BNDESPAR is the investment arm of Banco Nacional de Desenvolvimento Economico e Social-BNDES. The firm specializes in direct and fund of funds investments. For direct investments, it seeks to invest through private equity, venture capital and debentures. For fund of funds, it seeks to invest in private equity and venture capital funds. It seeks to invest in a variety of sectors, including information technology, infrastructure, energy, mining, telecommunications, supermarkets, airports and social sector investments. The firm primarily invests in companies based in Brazil. The firm primarily acquires minority stakes, and might consider taking over XX% stakes in seldom cases. It prefers to make transitory investments exiting its investments after a five to seven year period, but considers longer periods of investment. BNDESPar was founded in YYYY and is based in Brasilia, Brazil with additional offices in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
107	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in medium to large buyouts, buy-in, growth capital, middle market, consolidation, expansion, add-on acquisitions, and public-to-private transactions. The firm prefers to make investments in all sectors including companies engaged in the energy, manufacturing, consumer, financial services, healthcare, media and technology, information and communication technology, support services, industrials, business services, utilities, and transport industries. Within the business services sector the firm prefers to invest in professional services and business process outsourcing, property and facility services, testing, inspection and certification, equipment rental and asset outsourcing, and transport services and infrastructure. Within the consumer industry investments are sought in companies engaged in food and drink, health and fitness, entertainment, specialty retail, leisure, hotel, resorts, and cruise lines, FMCG, pubs and restaurants, and consumer goods. Additionally, the firm seeks to invest in retail turnaround situations or where a consumer brand is capable of further rollout. It seeks to invest in sub-prime lending, independent financial advisers, fund management, support services and insurance, consumer and specialist finance, financial infrastructure, technology and services, asset gathering, and wealth and asset management within the financial services sector. The firm has a particular interest in services and medical devices while investing in healthcare, where investments are also sought in pharmaceuticals, life sciences, medtech, medical equipments, medical device research equipments, and biotechnology. Within the media and technology sector it invests in marketing services, advertizing, publishing, broadcasting entertainment, information services, exhibitions, content ownership, intellectual property, research and digital service businesses, enterprise and vertical-specific software and services, Internet-based B2B and B2C companies, sports, and financial technology platforms. Within the manufacturing and industrials sector, the firm seeks to invest in aerospace and defence, cleantech and renewable industrial products, medtech, specialty chemicals, and water	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
108	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in buyouts and turnaround transactions. The firm seeks to invest in all the sectors including distribution, energy, materials, logistics, advertising, information technology, publishing, market research, and from the distribution of office supplies to niche industries. It considers investments in Europe and France. The firm typically invests between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies with turnover of €XX ($XX) to €XX ($XX), enterprise values between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX), EBITDA between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX), and revenues between €XX ($XXX) and €XX ($XXX). It prefers to take a majority or active minority shareholding in its portfolio companies and invests in equity or quasi-equity. Company B was founded in YYYY and is headquartered in Paris, France.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
109	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in management buyouts; recapitalizations; divestitures and spin-offs of divisions, subsidiaries, and product lines; family legacy situations, acquiring lower and middle market businesses. The firm does not invest in start-ups, first stage venture investments and sectors like software, heavy manufacturing, automotive suppliers, bankruptcies, consulting, and companies with a high dependency on international sales. It seeks to invest in consumer oriented business, niche manufacturing, value-added distribution, and service businesses with a focus on healthcare and business services associated with products or services that are unlikely to be displaced by rapidly changing technology, trading companies and distributors, outsourced business services, food products, household and personal products, and food distributors. The firm typically invests in companies based in Midwest and the central portion of the United States with a focus on companies located within XXX miles of Indianapolis and also in Great Lakes, MidAtlantic, Southeast, and Northeast regions. It seeks to invest between $XXX to $XX of equity capital in companies with annual sales between $XX and $XX, EBITDA between $XX to $XX, historical revenue growth in excess of XX percent per annum, and had a minimum three years of positive cash flow. For transactions requiring higher amounts of equity, the firm will partner with other investors who share their patient capital mentality. It seeks an advisor or a board seat and controlling stake in its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Indianapolis, Indiana.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
110	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in buyouts, acquisitions, divestitures under duress, restructurings, workouts, bankruptcies, mature and development capital in middle market private companies. The firm focuses on manufacturing, industrial, energy services, specialty chemicals, and restaurants. It does not consider investments in heavily regulated companies. The firm seeks to invest globally with a focus on companies based in North America and Europe. The firm invests between $XX and $XXX in companies with EBITDA between $XX and $XX, and its focus is on acquisitions with enterprise values between $XXX and $XX. It prefers to hold controlling positions in and seeks serving on boards of its portfolio companies. The firm seeks to exit its portfolio companies through a strategic sale or public offerings. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in New York, New York.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
111	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in investments in mature middle-market companies, management-led buy-outs, PIPES, and growth capital financings. It provides bridge financing. The firm invests in privately held companies seeking to accelerate growth through geographic expansion, acquisition or market consolidation, leveraged acquisitions of businesses with strong market positions, including orphan divisions of public companies, restructurings of fundamentally sound businesses with complex financial or operating issues, family-owned companies seeking to facilitate generational ownership changes or to recapitalize late-stage high-potential ventures not dependent on unproven technologies, small-cap public companies lacking strong institutional-investor following, and small and mid capitalization public companies seeking negotiated placement of preferred equity. It prefers to make investments in companies engaged in the communications, education, energy services, pharmaceuticals, biotechnology and life sciences, healthcare providers and services, food products, distributors, media, material, logistics, building products, consumer products and services, telecommunications, financial services, healthcare, and industrial products and services sectors. The firm seeks to invest in North America with a focus on the United States and Canada. It typically invests between $XX and $XX per transaction in companies with enterprise values between $XX and $XX and EBITDA between $XX and $XX. The firm generally takes a board seat in its portfolio companies. It seeks to hold its investments over a period of five years to seven years and exits through initial public offerings followed by registered secondary sale of shares, strategic sales to other companies, and sale to other private equity firms. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Boston, Massachusetts with an additional office in New York, New York.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
112	Company B	Company B is an investment firm specializing in secondary direct investments. The firm buys from financial institution, corporate venture investors, private equity and venture capital firms, and private sellers all over the world. Within secondaries market, it focuses on late-stage, mature, growth equity or the lower-end of the middle-market. It also focuses on special situations. After the initial investments, it can provide primary funding as well as recapitalizations as the business matures. Its transactions are simple purchases of cash, however strip-sales, earn outs, LP roll-overs or annex funds can also be arranged. It may also consider providing new-money and often stapled transaction structures. It does not invest in life sciences companies. The firm typically acquires portfolio in technology, digital, media, semiconductors, telecommunication, cleantech, and medical technology sector. It seeks to invest companies based in Europe, Israel and North America. Typically, it invests between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) per company. It can syndicate larger deals through co-investment schemes. It invests in companies with revenue between €XX ($XX) and $XX. It seeks significant minority positions between XX% and XX% ownership and, once invested, they are interested in expanding the stake through further secondary purchases. The firm can invest in single-company transactions as well as buying multiple, from X-X to XX+ investments in a single portfolio acquisition. Company B was founded in June YYYY and is based in Munich, Germany with additional offices in London, United Kingdom; and Luxembourg, Luxembourg.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
113	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing investments in seed/startup, turnaround, development capital, buyout, mature companies, and growth capital. It does not seek investments in the alcohol sector. Besides this, it invests in all sectors. It prefers to invest in France. The firm seeks to invest between $XX and $XX per transaction in companies with revenues up to €XX (XX). It considers to take a minority stake in its portfolio companies. It invests in combination of equity and debt. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Paris, France.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
114	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in buyouts, recapitalizations, industry consolidation or complementary acquisition, and growth capital transactions in middle market companies. It does not prefer to invest in start-ups, technology, and real estate companies. The firm typically invests in families seeking liquidity, shareholders looking to recapitalize, companies seeking growth through acquisitions, companies seeking new market expansion (geographic, consumer or product), or large corporations selling orphan divisions or operations that are no longer a strategic fit with their parent organizations. It seeks to invest in consumer or retail manufacturing and distribution, and general industrial, manufacturing, and services. Within these sectors, the firm targets food and beverage manufacturing, distribution and logistics, branded and private label consumer packaged goods, consumer durables, packaging, and specialty retailing. The firm prefers to invest in companies based in United States. It invests between $XX to $XX but is well positioned to invest in both larger and smaller transactions. The firm seeks to invest in companies with revenue between $XX to $XX. It prefers to be a controlling or strategic minority investor in its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in New York, New York.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
115	Company B	CVC Capital Partners Ltd. is a private equity firm specializing in middle market, mature, expansion, successions, management buyouts, buyins, leveraged buyouts and buyins, recapitalization, restructuring, growth, growth equity, and acquisitions. The firm makes investments in medium to large sized companies. It seeks to invest in industrial and service sectors including telecommunications, information technology, electronics, biotechnology, medical, energy, chemistry, new materials, industrial automatism, tech-enabled businesses such as human resources software, data centers or software as a-service, industrial goods and services, other manufactured goods, financial services, manufacturing, services, distribution, media, retail, telecom, media, technology, consumer goods, buildings, and public works. The firm also seeks to make infrastructure investments in Europe in the following sectors: transport, public or business utilities, provision of government services, communications infrastructure, energy production and provision, and businesses providing related regulated services. It prefers to invest in companies based in North America, Latin America, Southeast Asia, Asia with a focus on Hong Kong, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan, and Europe with a focus on France, Germany, and Switzerland. The firm targets a minimum equity investment of $XXX for its European funds and $XX for its Asian funds. It typically invests between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XXX) in companies with enterprise values between €XXX ($XXX) and €XX ($XX) and revenues between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). For Asia Pacific region, the firm seeks to invest in companies with enterprise value between $XXX to $XX. The firm typically holds its investment for five years or more. It also prefers to take a board seat in its portfolio companies. It typically acquires a joint interest or controlling or significant minority interests in European, Asian, and North American companies. CVC Capital Partners Ltd. was founded in 1981 and is based in London, United Kingdom with additional offices across Europe, North America, and Asia.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
116	Company B	Company B is private equity and venture capital arm of Daiwa Securities Group Inc, specializing in management buyouts and buy-ins. The firm primarily invests in companies in the seed/ start up, early, growth capital, expansion, and buyout stages. It's buyout investment business targets medium-sized companies with management resources, including companies in need of management to succeed their business; spin-offs; spinouts of subsidiaries or business divisions of major companies; and companies seeking to delist. The firm prefers to invest in technologies, such as digital and life science technologies, and entrepreneurial ventures with business models in the fields of digital contents and services. It also invests in the service, content media, distribution restaurant, and finance sector. The firm primarily invests in Japan and companies in Asia, North America, and Europe. Company B was founded on October XX, YYYY and is headquartered in Tokyo, Japan with additional offices across Asia.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
117	Company B	Company B specializes in venture capital investments as well as growth capital investments in more mature companies. It invests in new information and communication technologies sectors such as software, electronic, information technology, telecommunications, media as well as in the environment, new energies, sustainable development, new materials, services and industrial innovation sectors, and in real-estate companies. The fund typically invests in Europe, especially north of France, Belgium and Luxembourg.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
118	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in acquisitions and growth capital investments. It does not invest in startups and seeks to invest in companies that operate in a niche or specialty market and have a branded product line, or a proprietary or unique product line, technology, and methodology. The firm is industry agnostic with a focus on consumer packaged goods sector. For consumer packaged goods businesses, the firm seeks to invest in companies that have a compounded annual growth rate of more than XX%, sales revenues in excess of $XX, and XX% or more fully burdened gross profit margins. For growth businesses, it focuses on companies that have a compounded annual growth rate of more than XX% for the last two to three years, revenues between $XX and $XX, an EBITDA between $XX and $XX, and XX% or more fully burdened gross profit margins. For cash flow businesses, the firm invests in companies with a compounded annual growth rate less than XX% for the last two to three years, revenues between $XX and $XX, an EBITDA between $XX and $XX, and XX% or more fully burdened gross profit margins. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Indianapolis, Indiana.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
119	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in capital expansion funds management, growth capital, capital restructuring, owner's buyouts, middle market, management and leveraged buyouts and buy-ins, PIPES, and recapitalization. It does not undertake start-up or turnaround investments. The firm seeks to invest in all the sectors including Information Technology; computing; software; industrials; business services; consumer goods; distribution services; communication; media; leisure and healthcare sectors. The firm typically invests in Continental Europe mainly in France but also invests in Germany, Spain, and Italy. The firm typically makes equity or quasi equity investments between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies with sales value between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). It generally takes a minority stakes in unquoted firms. The firm also invests in companies with a view to being listed on the stock market. It typically invests for five years and seeks to exit through IPOs, capital restructuring, or strategic transactions. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Paris, France.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
120	Company B	-	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
121	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in investments in middle market and mature companies, buyouts of small-to-medium sized companies that have been under-managed, management buyouts, control acquisitions, corporate divestitures and carve-outs of divisions and subsidiaries of public companies, distressed debt, structured bridge loans, and special situations. It typically involves privately-held companies, family-owned businesses, and corporations selling divisions. The firm invests in all sectors with emphasis on manufacturers of commercial and industrial products, specialty distribution companies, entertainment and publishing entities, energy and related industries, aggregates and other natural resources, and food and beverage manufacturing. It primarily invests in companies based in United States with a focus on Western United States and considers companies based in Canada as well. The firm partners with selected institutional investment funds to make equity investments between $XX and $XX in companies with enterprise value between $XX and $XX, revenues between $XX and $XX, and EBITDA between $XX and $XX. It seeks to exit its investments between three and five years. Company B was founded in January YYYY and is based in Newport Beach, California with an additional office in Nevada.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
122	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in acquisitions. It does not invest in high technology firms. The firm typically invests in following sectors: manufacturing, services, retail, and franchising. It primarily invests in France, Spain, Great Britain, Germany, and Benelux. The firm typically invests in companies having sales between €XX ($XXX) and €1XX ($XXX). The firm invests in divestitures and family owned businesses. Company B is based in Banyoles, Spain.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
123	Company B	-	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
124	Company B	GE Capital Interbanca SpA is a private equity arm of General Electric Capital Corporation specializing in leveraged buyouts, management buyouts, and replacement capital. The firm typically invests in companies operating in all sectors except for the real estate and financial services sectors. It seeks to invest in non-listed companies based in Italy. GE Capital SpA prefers to invest between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in companies with enterprise values between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX); sales revenues between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XXX); and EBITDA between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XXX). The firm invests through its balance sheet. GE Capital Interbanca SpA was founded in YYYY and is headquartered in Milan, Italy with additional offices in Bologna, Italy; Brescia, Italy; Padova, Italy; and Rome, Italy.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
125	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in investments in technology driven industrial companies. The firm invests in companies with minimum annual revenues of DKK XXX ($XXX). It seeks to either invest alone or make in partnership with other investors. The firm prefers to hold a controlling stake in its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Copenhagen, Denmark.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
126	Company B	Company B is a venture capital firm specializing in investments in seed, start up, and early stage companies. The firm seeks to invest in products and services with a focus on applied technologies, business services, consumer products, non-biomedical healthcare services and products, and software sectors. It primarily seeks to invest in companies based in Northeast Ohio, but will also consider investments outside the region. The firm typically invests between $XXX and $XXX. For larger investments, it prefers co-investor syndications as a in lead investor. The firm prefers to invest in equity or equity-linked assets and may seek a board or an advisory board seat in its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Beachwood, Ohio.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
127	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in refinancing, recapitalizations, middle market, growth capital, and buyouts transactions in mature companies. The firm seeks to invest in the form of one-loan debt financings through gold facility, subordinate debt, senior debt, junior debt, last out senior debt, second lien senior debt, preferred stock, stretch mezzanine debt, preferred equity financing, common equity co-investments, and senior secured bank loan. It does not pursue investments in high technology, biotechnology, pharmaceutical, telecommunications infrastructure, oil and gas exploration, re-lending, or passive real estate businesses. The firm prefers to invest in both privately and publicly held companies in business and consumer services, consumer products, aerospace and defense, specialty manufacturing, value-added distribution, media, food and beverages, healthcare services, restaurants and specialty retail, and established software companies. It seeks to invest in middle market companies based in the United States. The firm also targets investments in non-control debt and equity financings as well as controlling equity investments in the United States and Canada. It typically, makes investments between $XX and $XX per transaction with additional capital available for growth and initial investments per deal range from $XX to $XX for subordinated debt in the form of subordinated notes with or without warrants for a maximum of nine years. For last out and second lien senior debt investments, the firm prefers to invest between $XX to $XX initially per deal in the form of an independent facility or a junior branch of the senior facility. It prefers to make an initial investment of $XX to $XX per deal for stretch mezzanine debt in the form of junior notes or redeemable while for equity financings, between $XX to $XX per deal as redeemable preferred with warrants. Within one stop debt financing, the firm prefers an initial investment in the range of $XX to $XX. It seeks to invest in companies with a minimum operating cash flow of $XX; minimum EBITDA of $XX; and enterprise values between $XX to $XX. The firm underwrites and syndicates first lien and senior loans up to $XXX. It makes equity investments up to $XX.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
128	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in leveraged buyouts, management-led buyouts, add on acquisitions, industry consolidation, corporate divestitures, distressed debt and equity, growth capital, recapitalization transactions, management-backed recapitalizations, turnarounds, distressed investments, underperforming businesses, growth or development capital by acquiring a minority stake, expansion, PIPES, mezzanine, micro cap public, mid-cap to private transactions in small, medium-sized, and lower middle market companies. It also provides debt. The firm does not invest in industries that are highly cyclical or capital intensive. It primarily invests in small and medium sized companies in specialty manufacturing, business services, consumer goods and services, education services, building products, manufacturing, financial services, aviation, media, retailing, energy, natural resources, healthcare, industrials, information technology with a focus on IT services, software, Chemical, communications equipment, and telecommunication services sectors. It prefers to invest in companies based in the United States with a focus on Western and Midwest United states and North America, Europe with a focus on Southern Europe and Continental Europe, France, Austria, United Kingdom, Germany, Nordic region, Benelux, Ireland, Switzerland, Latin America with a focus on Brazil, and Iberian Peninsula. The firm seeks to invest between $XX and $XXX in companies with enterprise value between $XX and $XX, sales value between $XX and $XX, and EBITDA of $XX and $XX. While investing in Spain, the firm prefers to invest between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) in each portfolio company for majority as well as minority stakes. The firm also makes debt investment of minimum $XX. The firm can make minority as well as control equity investments in its portfolio companies. It also offers debt in Spain. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Miami, Florida with additional offices across North America, South America, and Europe.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
129	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in buyouts, turnarounds, and acquisitions of mature, later stage, and middle market companies. It also invests in add-on acquisitions. In case of its add-on acquisitions, the firm seeks to invest in companies of all sizes. It seeks to invest in companies operating in the product oriented businesses including manufacturing, value added distribution, business services, energy, materials, industrials, consumer discretionary, consumer staples, health care technology, healthcare equipment and supplies, information technology, utilities, and specialty services in multiple industries. In case of add-on acquisitions, the firm seeks to invest in companies that operate in a business complementary to its existing portfolio companies. It primarily invests in companies based in North America for its new core acquisitions but for its add-on acquisitions the firm does not have any geographical preference. The firm typically invests in companies that have an enterprise value between $XX and $XX, revenues between $XX and $XX, and an EBITDA between $XX and $XX, however it does not have any revenue, enterprise value, or EBITDA preference in case of add-on acquisitions. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in St. Louis, Missouri with additional offices in Shanghai, China and Bangalore, India.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
130	Company B	Company B. is an endowment arm of Harvard University. The firm invests in the public equity and fixed income markets across the globe. The firm also makes private equity, venture capital, and real estate investments. It employs external managers to manage its portfolios. Company B. was founded in YYYY and is based in Boston, Massachusetts.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
131	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in investments in family-held businesses. The firm typically invests in management buyouts, leveraged buyouts, leveraged recapitalizations, growth capital, add-on acquisitions or liquidity to buy out partners, middle market, mezzanine, and mature investments. It does not make investments in start-ups, companies with negative cash flow, venture rounds, turnarounds, and Real Estate Development. The firm primarily invests in low to medium technology manufacturing; all forms of distribution, and value added service businesses including specialized retail and food services; and franchising businesses. The firm invests in companies based in United States including their foreign subsidiaries. It seeks to invest in companies with minimum free cash flow (EBITDA minus sustaining CAPEX) between $XX and $XX. It invests in non-control positions. The firm structures acquisitions, recapitalization, and growth through common and preferred investments. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in New York, New York and has additional offices in Miami, Florida; Dallas, Texas; Los Angeles, California; Seattle, Washington; and Deerfield, Illinois.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
132	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in investments in late venture, emerging growth, growth capital, management buy-outs or management buy-in, recapitalization in middle market companies. The firm seeks to invest across all sectors. It seeks to invest in Europe with a focus on France. The firm seeks to invest between €XX ($XX) and €XXX ($XX) in companies having revenues between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX) and enterprise value between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). Its management team helps the portfolio companies to structure their projects and offers advice and consulting services. The firm seeks to take a board seat in its portfolio companies. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Paris, France.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
133	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in investing in growth companies, distressed, buyouts, corporate spin-offs in reorganization phases, divestitures, and special situations due to turnaround or restructuring needs, succession problems. The firm seeks to invest in medium sized enterprises, mid-cap as well as mature companies. It seeks to invest in the acquisition of companies formed by corporate spin-offs and entities carved-out from conglomerates; family owned businesses with liquidity, balance sheet, or profitability problems through leverage buyouts, management buyins, and management buyouts; succession problems at family owned businesses; work-out-cases; and turnaround situations with profitability and balance sheet problems. The firm seeks to invest in all industry sectors with a particular focus on manufacturing, retail, and trade companies. It prefers to invest in companies based in Europe. The firm typically invests a minimum of €XX ($XX) and a maximum of €XX ($XX) in companies with enterprise value between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX), sales value between €X ($XX) and €X ($XX), and EBITDA between negative €XX (negative $XX) and €XX ($XX). It seeks a majority or total take-over if possible. The firm has a medium- to long-term-investment horizon. It seeks to invest through its personal capital, private investors, and family offices. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Cologne, Germany.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
134	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in acquisition transactions. The firm invests across the industry spectrum. It prefers to invest in companies, which have a requirement to replace its existing shareholders or are interested in selling their business outright to an independent party or in releasing capital to its principals. The firm prefers to invest between €XX ($XX) and €XX ($XX). Company B is based in London, United Kingdom.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Plastic Injection Moulding

Source: Capital IQ

Sr. No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
135	Company B	Kornberg Kravis Roberts &amp; Co. LLP is a private equity investment firm specializing in acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, management buyouts, special situations, growth equity, mature, mezzanine, distressed, and middle market investments. The firm considers investments in all industries with a focus on technology and hardware, consumer products and services industry, industry-leading franchises and companies in natural resource, energy and infrastructure assets, real estate, containers and packaging, commodity chemicals, airports, ports, forestry, textiles, apparel and luxury goods, household durables, leisure facilities, communications, media, transportation related assets, insurance, brokerage houses, non-durable goods distribution, supermarket retailing, healthcare, hospitals, entertainment venues and production companies, publishing, printing services, capital goods, financial services, pipelines, and renewable energy. In energy and infrastructure, it typically focuses in upstream production and surrounding services as well as in the long-lived infrastructure assets that provide critical links in the supply chain and electric and gas utilities. In real estate, the firm seeks to invest in private and public real estate securities including property-level equity, debt and special situations transactions and businesses with significant real estate holdings, and oil and natural gas properties. The firm seeks to invest in mid- to high-end residential developments, but can invest in other projects throughout Mainland China through outright ownership, joint ventures, and merger. It typically invests globally with a focus on Australia, emerging and developed Asia, Middle East and Africa, Nordic, Southeast Asia, Asia Pacific, Ireland, Hong Kong, Japan, Taiwan, India, Vietnam, Indonesia, Denmark, France, Germany, Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, United Kingdom, Caribbean, Mexico, South America, North America, Latin America, Korea, Canada, and United States of America. In the United States and Europe, the firm focuses on buyouts of large, publicly traded companies. It seeks to invest $XX to $XX in companies with enterprise values between $XX to $XX. The firm prefers to invest in a range of debt and public equity investments and leveraged investment based on	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
136	Company B	Company B is a private equity firm specializing in buyout, platform, and add-on acquisition transactions of middle market companies. It primarily invests in companies engaged in the aftermarket products and services, automotive aftermarket, building products, business services and products, commercial aerospace, commercial and consumer durables, consumer packaged products, contract manufacturing services, direct marketing and catalogs, education and training, ethnic products, food and beverage, food service equipment, health and safety products, healthcare services and outsourcing, hobby and crafts, home furnishing and décor, home improvement products, industrial products, infrastructure products, juvenile products, leisure and recreation, logistics, medical devices and diagnostics, niche apparel, outdoor and garden living, packaging, personal services, pet products and services, plastics, retailing services, retailing and point-of-purchase systems, school and education products, specialty chemicals, test and measurement, and value-added distribution sectors. The firm seeks to invest in companies based in North America. It typically makes equity investments between $XX and $XX in companies with an EBITDA between $XX and $XX, enterprise values between $XX and $XX, and revenues between $XX and $XX. The firm exits its investments over a period of five to seven years through sale to a strategic buyer/financial buyer, sale to the portfolio company's management, financial restructuring, and public offering of securities of the portfolio company. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Mayfield Heights, Ohio.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)
137	Company B	Company B is a privately owned investment manager. The firm provides its services to statutory boards, educational institutions, public and private companies, charities, non-profit organizations, and retail investors. It launches and manages equity, fixed income, and balanced mutual funds for its clients. The firm invests in the public equity and fixed income markets across the globe. It employs fundamental, technical, and valuation analysis, and uses top-down macro analysis, and bottom-up asset selection approach to make its investments. The firm operates as a subsidiary of Great Eastern Holdings Limited. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Singapore with an additional office in Bandar Seri Begawan, Brunei. Company B operates as a subsidiary of Great Eastern Holdings Ltd.	Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Manufacturing Sector

Source: Capital IQ

Fund No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
1	Company A	Company A is a private equity firm specializing in investments in the industrial technology sector. It seeks to invest in engineering services, integration services, field services, and consulting services; advanced information systems, control systems, and proprietary products enabled by advanced controls; enterprise software including supply chain, product life cycle, manufacturing execution, and asset management software; process control and motion control systems; operational control systems used in the operation of automobiles, trucks, ships, rail, and aerospace vehicles and their power systems; industrial machinery, electrical and electronic products; and computer-enabled fabricated metal products. The firm prefers to invest in companies having principal operations in North America. It typically invests between $XX and $XX in companies having sales more than $XX. The firm typically partners with its portfolio companies for three to six years. Company A was founded in YYYY and is based in Newport Beach, California.	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
2	Company B	Company B is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in seed, start up, early stage, late stage, growth capital, buyout and emerging growth investments. The firm prefers to invest in applied technology, information technology, telecommunication services, networking infrastructure, semiconductors, materials, outsourced business services, consumer durables and apparel, media, specialty retail, medical equipment, insurance and outsourced technology manufacturing services. The firm seeks to invest in Pennsylvania. It is a series A investor and typically invest between $XX and $XX. It prefers to be a lead investor in its transactions. The firm seeks to take a board seat and an ownership stake of more than XX% in its portfolio companies. It typically holds its investments for five years to ten years and prefers to exit through public offering, merger, and an outright sale. It typically invests in markets of at least $XX in size. Company B was founded in YYYY and is based in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania with additional offices in Austin, Texas; Boston, Massachusetts; and Palo Alto, California.	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
3	Company C	Company C is a venture capital firm specializing in incubation. It seeks to make investments in start-up and early stage companies. The firm typically invests in technology companies with a focus on biomedical technology, computers and electronics, engineering and technology services, environmental technology, internet applications, manufacturing, new media, optical technology, software, gaming, energy, telecommunications, medical equipment, healthcare services, medical research and development, semiconductors, IT services, networking equipment, wireless telephone equipment, electronic manufacturing services, broadband telecommunication services, and wireless telecommunication services. It invests in companies based in Georgia. It prefers to make a maximum investment of $XX. Company C was formed in YYYY and is based in Atlanta, Georgia with additional offices in Atlanta, Georgia, Columbus, Georgia, Savannah, Georgia; and Warner Robins, Georgia.	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
4	Company D	Company D is a venture capital firm specializing in investments in seed, early stage, and growth stage companies. The firm prefers to invest in information technology infrastructure, enterprise applications and services, software applications, technology enabled services (consumer and business), information technology, clean technology sectors, and telecommunications. It seeks to invest in companies based in North America. It typically makes an initial investments between $XX and $XX. The firm typically takes a board seat in its portfolio companies. Company D was founded in YYYY and is based in Chicago, Illinois.	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
5	Company E	Company E is a venture capital and private equity firm specializing in investing in initial seed, seed and startup, early stage, growth capital, emerging and expansion stage, later stage, middle market, tuck-in acquisitions, bridge, recapitalization, and management buyouts. For middle market investments, it invests in special situations and seeks to invest in privately held business transitioning to institutional ownership through proprietary, matchmaker introduction, or limited auction. For middle market investments, the firm focuses on business services, industrial services, construction and related services, offfield services, food services, and light manufacturing sectors. For start-ups, initial seed, and early stage investments, it prefers to invest in enterprise information technology, internet, and digital media sectors. For growth and expansion stage investments, the firm prefers to invest in internet, digital media, and business services sectors. The firm also invests in creative design consulting, internet consulting, system and platform integration, web design, infrastructure and enterprise software products and services, communications, software, web-enabled business and consumer services, technology services, B2B software market, SaaS, and cloud computing sectors. For middle market investments, it invests in companies headquartered in, substantially operating in, or expanding to Texas. For start-up, initial seed, early stage, growth and expansion stage investments, the firm invests primarily in Texas. It also invests in the Austin area and Houston. For start-ups, initial seed, and early stage investments, the firm makes an initial investment between $XX and $XX with a total investment between $XX and $XX. For growth and expansion stage investments, it makes an initial investment between $XX and $XX and total investments between $XX and $XX. For middle market investments, the firm seeks to invest between $XX and $XX in companies with EBITDA between $XX and $XX, but may consider lesser amounts for tuck-in acquisitions. It prefers to be the lead and sole investor and also acquires majority or strong minority stakes in its portfolio companies. The firm seeks a Board seat in its portfolio companies.	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
6	Company F	Company F is a venture capital firm specializing in seed, early, and later stage financing. The firm prefers to make investments in network enterprises and related enabling technology and software companies. It typically invests between $XX and $XX with seed stage investments as low as $XX. The firm takes a board seat in its portfolio companies. Company F was founded in YYYY and is based in Denver, Colorado with additional offices in Houston, Texas and Austin, Texas.	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
7	Company G	Company G is an investment arm of Cisco Systems, Inc. specializing in direct and fund of funds investments. Within venture capital investments, it focuses on start-ups, early stage companies, later stage and even pre-IPD companies. The firm seeks to invest in the technology industry with a focus on data and analytics; the Internet of Things (IoT); connected mobility; storage; silicon; and the content technology ecosystem. It prefers to invest in Russia and elsewhere. The firm seeks to invest between $XX and $XX. It seeks to take between XX percent and XX percent of companies in most situations. Company G is based in San Jose, California with an additional office in Moscow, Russia.	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Manufacturing Sector
 Source: Capital IQ

Fund No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
8	Company H	Company H is a venture capital firm specializing in seed, start-up, early, emerging growth, late venture bridge, growth stage, and PFI investments in emerging markets. The firm primarily invests in consumer and enterprise information technology, commerce, cloud, enterprise, big data, bold new technologies, energy, alternative energy resources, materials, clean technology, consumer media and advertising, web broadcasts and cybercasts, published electronic materials, consumer services and transactions, life sciences, mobile and wireless, new media, internet content, mobile data services, e-commerce, disruptive technologies, telecommunications, digital telecommunications services, nanotechnology, digital media, services, education, and healthcare industry software. Within information technology: it focuses on web-based applications and services, internet software, e-commerce software, semi conductors, software infrastructure including peer-to-peer infrastructure, wireless devices software, data communications and bandwidth enhancement, information services, enterprise and wireless applications, wireless application service providers, business to business commerce, services, and technologies. Within nanotechnology and life sciences, the firm invests in bio-ratio and biomimetic innovations, MEMS, novel materials, molecular electronics, biotechnology, life sciences tools and services, medical devices and therapeutics, pharmaceuticals, medical testing, analyzing, diagnostic equipment, molecular diagnostics, bioinformatics, agbio, bio-energy, and various platforms and tools. Within clean energy technologies, it invests in energy generation, transmission, utilization and storage, water purification, grid optimization, industrial sensing and monitoring, and advanced materials and catalysts. The firm seeks to invest in the United States with a focus on East Coast, Mid-Gain, West Coast, California, and Texas. It also invests in China, India, South Korea, Vietnam, Europe, and Greece. The firm invests upto $XXX in seed stage companies, between $XX and $XK in early stage, and more than $XK in growth stage companies. It makes equity investments in the range between $XX and $XK	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
9	Company I	Draper Triangle Ventures is a venture capital firm specializing in angel, seed, early stage, and startup investments. It does not invest in shops, metal bending plants, chemical processing plants. The firm typically invests in information technology and life science technology companies with a focus on internet, software, high-technology, nanotechnology, education, bio-medical devices, medical devices, and electronic services, semiconductor. It prefers to invest in companies based in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Midwest region of the United States. The firm typically invests between $XXX and $XXK in first round of investments. It targets companies with the potential to achieve sales of up to $XX within three to five years. It prefers a board seat in its portfolio company and seeks to be a lead investor for the first round of financing. Draper Triangle Ventures is based in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania with additional offices in Cleveland, Ohio, Detroit, Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Columbus, Ohio.	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
10	Company J	Company J is a firm specializing in management buyouts, recapitalizations, purchase of family businesses, corporate divestitures, acquisitions, refinancing, global expansion, and on acquisitions, restructurings, middle market, subordinated debt, mezzanine debt, mezzanine debt with equity, equity co-investment alongside mezzanine, leveraged buyouts, sponsored, fundless sponsored or family/management owned businesses, specialty financing, small business finance, cash flow lending, subprime finance, and growth capital financing. Within specialty financing the firm invests in bridge loans, debtor in possession loans, distressed acquisitions, operational turnarounds, and structured financings. It considers investment in securities such as first lien secured loans, "First Out" Participations, convertible debt, growth and control equity. It seeks to invest in small and mid-size businesses that operate in niche sectors. For private equity investments the firm invests in sectors such as food and agribusiness, medical devices, and transportation. Within food and agribusiness it invests in chemicals, supplements, biotechnology, specialty equipment, services / safety, plant and animal nutrition, and technology and data. Within medical devices the firm invests in surgical supplies, capital equipment, disposables, and dental. Within transportation it invests in parts and components, automotive, aerospace, heavy truck, vocational equipment, systems / technology, support services, and education and training. It invests in the United States and for private equity investments it also seeks investment in North America. For mezzanine investments the firm focuses upon business services, distribution, manufacturing, healthcare, and consumer products. For private equity investments the firm invests between $XX to $XX, in companies with enterprise value between $XX to $XX with EBITDA greater than $XX, and EBITDA margin greater than X% percent. For mezzanine investments it invests between $XX to $XX and larger through co-investment in companies with annual revenues greater than $XX and normalized EBITDA greater than $XX and it shall exit its investments between three to five years. For specialty	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
11	Company K	Company K is a private equity, venture capital, and SBIC investing firm specializing in investments in mezzanine financing, management buyouts, leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations, and growth stage investments. The firm seeks to invest in startups, early stage, emerging growth, middle market, mid venture, and expansion stages in the companies. It typically invests in enterprise software, mobile computing, cloud/SaaS, security, business intelligence, finance, healthcare IT, internet, telecommunications, consumer products, financial services, retail, semiconductors, commercial services and supplies, consumer staples, and distributors. The firm primarily invests in Oklahoma, Southwestern United States with a focus on Southern California, Arizona, Nevada, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico, Texas, and Mexico focusing on Baja California South. It invests between $XX and $XXK in its portfolio companies with first round of financing ranging between $XX and $XXK. The firm seeks to invest in companies with annual rate of revenues more than $XX, enterprise value between $XX and $XX, and EBITDA between $XX and $XX. It generally invests in the form of preferred stock with dividends. The firm participates in syndicate financing with other institutional funds in larger rounds of financing. It seeks to acquire minority ownership positions in its portfolio companies. The firm typically holds its investments for a period of three to seven years. The firm primarily exits through sale of company to a strategic buyer and public offering. However, it also exits an investment in the form of sale to financial buyer, recapitalization, private sale of an equity interest to investors, strategic merger, spin-off, and sale of business segment. Company K was founded in YYYY and is based in Phoenix, Arizona.	Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Manufacturing Sector

Source: Capital IQ

Fund No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
12	Company L	Company L is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in investments in management buyouts, recapitalizations, ownership changes, later-stage, and growth opportunities. The firm typically invests in manufacturing, service, distribution, and technology businesses across the United States. It typically invests between $XX and $XX in the first round of financing in companies as a member of a syndicate that may be providing $XX to $XX. The firm typically invests in companies seeking less than $XX and that have annual sales between $XX and $XX. It often co-invests with other venture funds, prefers to lead or play an active co-investor role, and seeks participation on the Board of Directors or observation rights. It may also participate in Audit, Compensation and Management Selection Committees of the portfolio companies. The firm's favored investment structures include subordinated debt with warrants to acquire common stock or conversion rights, preferred stock with warrants to acquire common stock or conversion rights, and common stock often representing a minority ownership position. It typically requires investment agreement provisions (e.g. anti-rights, registration rights, etc.) to provide for exits. Company L was founded in YYYY and is headquartered in Cedar Rapids, Iowa with additional offices in Kansas City, Missouri; Vancouver, Washington; Fargo, North Dakota and St. Paul, Minnesota.	Company XYZ. (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ. (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
13	Company M	Company M is a venture capital firm specializing in seed stage investments. It does not invest in the life sciences, non-technology consumer driven companies, and real estate companies. The firm primarily invests in internet services, mobile, and security. It prefers to invest in the private companies headquartered in the United States, primarily on the West Coast. The firm seeks to make an initial investment between $XX and $XX with additional capital reserved for the follow-on investment rounds typically between $XX and $XX, invested over the life of a company. In first round investments, it prefers to partner with other investors to create a total first round financing ranging between $XX and $XX. The firm prefers to be the first professional investor in the portfolio company and seeks a board seat. It exits its investments in its portfolio companies either through their sale to other companies via acquisition or to the public via an initial public offering (IPO). Company M was founded in YYYY and is located in Menlo Park, California.	Company XYZ. (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ. (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
14	Company N	Company N is a venture capital firm specializing in incubation, early stage start-ups, growth capital, and seed investments. It has a particular focus on seed acceleration, university spin-outs and incubation. It focuses on novel software, emerging technologies and science-based startups with a focus on information technology, energy, life sciences, cleantech and nanotechnology. The firm also invests in advanced materials and bioscience companies in the United States mid-continent region. It seeks out opportunities to commercialize transformative technologies that address very large markets (typically $XXX). The firm focuses its investment in United States, Midcontinent with a focus on Pennsylvania, Utah, Texas, Colorado, Illinois, and Michigan. The firm typically invests between $XX and $XX in seed and early-stage companies and also builds syndicates for investments needing larger amounts of capital. It invests between $XX and $XX over the life of an investment. It leads or co-lead the first round of investment but can also invest independently or catalyze a company's first institutional investment round. Company N was co-founded in YYYY and is based in Houston, Texas with an additional office in Austin, Texas.	Company XYZ. (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ. (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
15	Company O	Company O is a venture capital firm specializing in startups, seed, early, mid, and later stage investments, and university spinouts. It seeks to make investments in Automotive Industry IT and Connected Car, retail automotive information technology, solutions for industrial and retail enterprises, e-commerce, online marketplaces, Middle Market SaaS, and cloud and social media infrastructure sectors. It also seeks to invest in emerging high-tech information-technology sectors with a focus on materials, software, systems and semiconductors, advanced materials processing, business services and process optimization, data discovery and analytics, manufacturing quality, warranty and costing systems, new-media delivery and infrastructure, real-time enterprise, personalization of the web, semiconductor digital and analog design, software automation and design and QA tools, web-application optimization and security, and wireless infrastructure. The firm also seeks to invest in companies selling to the manufacturing or automotive sector and companies based on technology developed at one of the Midwest's premier research centers. It prefers to invest in companies based in the Midwest, West Coast, Great Lakes, and Silicon Valley region of the United States. The firm also makes follow on financing to its portfolio companies. The firm was previously known as Waypoint Ventures. Company O was founded in May YYYY and is based in Ann Arbor, Michigan.	Company XYZ. (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ. (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
16	Company P	Company P is a venture capital firm specializing in early stage investments. The firm prefers to invest in information technology, communications infrastructure, and information based companies. It does not invest in B2C and non-differentiated B2B companies. It seeks to invest in software and services including distributed computing and collaboration platforms, embedded software applications, security and privacy solutions, systems and components including intelligent sensors and micro electromechanical systems, mobility infrastructure for consumer and enterprise, next generation analog semiconductors, and emerging technologies including alternative energy and advanced materials platforms. The firm looks to invest in companies based in the region of Southeastern United States. The firm seeks to invest between $XX to $XX in portfolio companies. Company P was founded in the year YYYY and is based in Fort Myers, Florida with an additional office at Stamford, Connecticut.	Company XYZ. (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ. (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
17	Company Q	Company Q is an incubation and venture capital firm specializing in investments in startups and later-stage companies. The firm focuses on companies involving in smart grid applications, energy trading and risk management, digital oilfield, energy efficiency, and regulatory compliance sectors. It seeks to invest $XXX cash in its portfolio companies. The firm also provides advice and mentoring services to its portfolio companies. Company Q is based in Houston, Texas.	Company XYZ. (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ. (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)

Financial Buyers - Manufacturing Sector

Source: Capital IQ

Fund No.	Fund Name	Fund Description	Portfolio Companies
18	Company R	Company R is a private equity and venture capital firm specializing in investments in buyouts, minority growth equity, full or partial recapitalizations for both diversification of capital structure and modifying shareholder equity, acquisition financing to supplement complementary add-on acquisitions, and other majority and public market transactions. The firm seeks to invest in growth stage, early, mid, and late venture stages, mature, and later stages of development. It seeks to provide guidance on initial public offerings, mergers and acquisitions, expansion and refinancing. It seeks to provide growth and acquisition capital to publicly trading companies in the form of PFDs and also invests in its portfolio companies at the IPO stage and beyond. The firm seeks to invest in companies operating in the information technology sector, with a focus on, internet, business and financial services, software, and infrastructure markets. It focuses on financial technology, government services, equipment and communications businesses, semiconductors, payments, mobile, security, storage, datacenter, enterprise software, healthcare IT, e-commerce, wireless technology, computer hardware, and consumer internet sectors. It seeks to invest in companies based in North America, focusing on the United States and Canada as well as in Europe, Australia, Israel, and select international locations. The firm typically invests between $500K and $2M ($500K) in its portfolio companies with sales value of minimum $5M, and minimum $5M in case of companies based in Australia. It prefers to invest between $5M and $20M in companies based in United States and Australia. It co-invests for larger transactions and prefers to take a seat on the board of directors of its portfolio companies. The firm seeks minority or majority positions. Company R was founded in YYYY and is based in Palo Alto, California with additional offices in London, United Kingdom; and New York, New York.	Company XYZ, (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
19	Company S	Company S is a venture capital firm specializing in seed stage, start-ups, early stage to late stage, growth capital, and emerging growth companies. The firm also provides acquisition financing to teams, IP or revenue generating companies. It also provides equipment and working capital financing. The firm also makes convertible debts, venture debt investment and asset based lending, in the form of secured loans and equipment leases, in exchange for current coupon payments and equity warrants. The firm primarily invests in venture backed companies in the communications, information services, healthcare, biotechnology, media, technology, technology-enabled business services companies, software, internet, life science, medical devices, and cleantech industries. It seeks to invest in companies based in the United States and Israel. It seeks to invest between $500K and $2M. It seeks to provide equity capital in conjunction with debt financing. The firm also seeks to hold warrants in its portfolio companies. Company S was founded in YYYY and is based at Portola Valley, California.	Company XYZ, (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)
20	Company T	Company T is a venture capital firm specializing in seed, startup, early growth, mid venture, late venture, and expansion stage investments. The firm invests in clean energy, biomedicine, TMT (technology, media and telecommunications), information technology, cleantech opportunities, and life sciences. Within information technology, it invests in communications including aspects of interconnection, including transmission systems (wired-line and wireless), load balancing, communications software, and services; wireless; internet; digital media; semiconductors; enterprise solutions; software; new technology applications; and consumer products and services. The firm focuses on high-growth fabless opportunities in digital, analog, and mixed-signal technologies, and is particularly interested in companies whose new materials, processes, and designs create disruptive technologies that address new market opportunities or offer significant price/performance advantages. In life sciences, it invests in bio-technology; medical devices, diagnostics, and equipment; healthcare services; healthcare information technology; and specialty pharmaceuticals. For its cleantech investments, the firm focuses on energy efficiency, alternative energy, and new materials. It invests in companies based in the United States, Taiwan, Europe, and Greater China. In Greater China, the firm specializes in investments in early and expansion stage companies with direct link to consumers. In United States and Europe, it seeks to invest in companies in the technology sector. The firm typically invests between $500K and $2M in its portfolio companies. It makes investments for medium period between three and five years and for long term period between five and eight years. Company T was founded in YYYY and is based in San Francisco, California with additional offices in Taipei, Taiwan; Beijing, China; and Singapore, Singapore.	Company XYZ, (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment); Company XYZ (Prior Investment); Company XYZ (Current Investment)